Grandmothers Counsel The World Women Elders Offer Their Vision For Our Planet Carol Schaefer

Grandmothers Counsel the World Carol Schaefer,2006 Documents a gathering of 13 grandmothers older female indigenous spiritual leaders from around the world in 2004 along with other women elders with biographical portraits of each grandmother and elder and presentations of their guidance wisdom and prophecies for the modern world

Grandmothers Counsel the World Carol Schaefer,2006-11-14 We are thirteen indigenous grandmothers We are deeply concerned with the unprecedented destruction of our Mother Earth the atrocities of war the global scourge of poverty the prevailing culture of materialism the epidemics that threaten the health of the Earth s peoples and with the destruction of indigenous ways of life We the International Council of Thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers believe that our ancestral ways of prayer peacemaking and healing are vitally needed today We believe that the teachings of our ancestors will light our way through an uncertain future In some Native American societies tribal leaders consulted a council of grandmothers before making any major decisions that would affect the whole community What if we consulted our wise women elders about the problems facing our global community today This book presents the insights and guidance of thirteen indigenous grandmothers from five continents many of whom are living legends among their own peoples The Grandmothers offer wisdom on such timely issues as nurturing our families cultivating physical and mental health and confronting violence war and poverty Also included are the reflections of Western women elders including Alice Walker Gloria Steinem Helena Norberg Hodge and Carol Moseley Brown

Pictures at an Execution Wendy Lesser,1998-07-21 This book is about murder in life and in art and about how we look at it and feel about it At the centre of Wendy Lesser s investigation is a legal case in which a federal court judge was asked to decide whether a gas chamber execution would be broadcast on public television Lesser conducts us through the proceedings pausing along the way to reflect on the circumstances of violent death in our culture Her book is also a meditation on murder in a civilized society what we make of it in law morality and art

Inside Out ,2008-01-01 The incursions of women into areas from which they had been traditionally excluded together with the literary representations of their attempts to negotiate subvert and appropriate these forbidden spaces is the underlying theme that unites this collection of essays Here scholars from Australia Greece Great Britain Spain Switzerland and the United States reconsider the well entrenched assumptions associated with the public private distinction working with the notions of public and private spheres while testing their currency and exploring their blurred edges The essays cover and uncover a rich variety of spaces from the slums and court rooms of London to the American wilderness from the Victorian drawing room and sick room to out of the ordinary places like Turkish baths and the trenches of the First World War Where previous studies have tended to focus on a single aspect of women's engagement with space this edited book reveals a plethora of subtle and tenacious strategies found in a variety of discourses that include fiction poetry diaries letters essays and journalism Inside Out goes beyond the early work on artistic explorations of gendered space to explore the breadth of the field and its theoretical implications

Cinema and the Urban Poor in South India Sara Dickey, 2007-09-17 This study of the Indian cinema is concerned particularly with cinema goers in Madurai a city in Tamil Nadu South India Sara Dickey reviews the history of Tamil film explains the structure of the industry and presents the perspective of the filmmakers However the core of the book is an analysis of the films themselves and the place they have in the lives of poor people who organize fan clubs discuss the films and the actors and in various ways relate these fantasy worlds to their own lives Dickey argues that the effect of these films is ultimately conservative for they glorify poverty while holding out the hope of a better future Her rich ethnography makes an interesting contribution to the study of film in India and more generally to the understanding of popular culture in an Indian city

The Laughing People Serge Bouchard, 2021-08-18 The Laughing People translated from the award winning Le peuple rieur conveys the richness and resilience of the Innu while reminding us of the forces old and new that threaten their community This memoir and tribute tells the tale of the very long journey of a very small nation recounting both its joie de vivre and its crosses borne Readers follow Serge Bouchard a young anthropologist in the 1970s as he arrives in Ekuanitshit Mingan Quebec and comes to know its residents His observations and questions document a community weathering yet another season of change skidoos replace dogsleds and forests are bulldozed for prefabricated housing while nonetheless defying external pressures to assimilate or disappear altogether Returning to these texts fifty years later Bouchard moves beyond platitudes of strength and dives into wide scale injustices to present the sacrifices and beauty of the Innu people on individual terms Whether recounting the impact of the residential school system on Georges Mestokosho the wave of Innu activism inspired by An Antane Kapeshe or the uncelebrated work of women like Nishapet Enim The Laughing People presents an opportunity for readers to be part of the preservation and proliferation of these important stories

Children at Risk Patrick McDonald, Emma Garrow, 2000 Authenticity George Cappannelli, Sedena Cappannelli, 2005-05 Your world demands more every day It's easy to feel trapped and stressed tested by lack of time and challenged by others telling you what to do As a result you miss out on what's really important to you For you

The Other Mother Carol Schaefer, 2013-08-17 In 1965 Carol Schaefer was 19 a freshman in college and deeply in love She was also pregnant When her boyfriend's family opposed their marrying her parents sequestered her in a Catholic home for unwed mothers a state away where she was isolated and where secrecy prevailed She had only to give up her baby for her sin to be forgiven and then all would soon be forgotten she was told The child in turn would be placed with a good family instead of having his life ruined by the stigma of illegitimacy Carol tried to find the strength to oppose this dogma but her shame had become too deep The first time I looked deep into my son's eyes I felt like a criminal As I unwrapped his hospital blanket and took in the heady fragrance of a newborn I feared the nurses or the sisters would come in and slap me for contaminating my own son Finding no way out she signed the fateful papers leaving her son in the hands of strangers but with a vow to her baby she would find him one day For years Carol struggled to forget and live the normal life promised not understanding the consequences of the trauma she'd endured On his eighteenth birthday she set out to find him although the law denied access to records Her search became a spiritual quest to reclaim her own lost self as she came to understand the emotional and psychological wounds she and other mothers like her had endured Against all odds she succeeded in finding him and discovered that in many ways they had never really been apart With her son's encouragement and his adoptive mother's cooperation she tells their story pain and love you're on that roller coaster with her as if the life she lived was yours St Petersburg Times Poignant and powerful The Other Mother shatters the myth that unwed mothers unprepared for the sacrifice they make go on to lead normal and untouched lives Booklist Any woman who has gone through any part of her experience or has been close to somebody who will attest to the story's authenticity The Washington Post I recommend it with all my heart Its courage integrity and love make it a treasure not only for adoptive families and birth families it is for everyone who longs to know how deep the levels are that connect us and how precious Gary Zukav The Seat of the Soul addresses intimately the experience of a Birthmother as no other book has or probably ever will Expertly written Jone Carlson Editor People Searching News Courageous moving and heartening Betty Jean Lifton Journey of the Adopted Self A wonderful book From my professional perspective the book is right on target Reubon Pannor coauthor The Adoption Triangle John's Book of Everyday Transformation Carol Schaefer, 2016-03-06 John's Book of Everyday Transformation offers layers of understanding about our place in the Universe and the magic inherent in our daily lives The depths John's teachings reach allows us to discover and ignite our own individual spark of Creation from which all our good originates The teachings go beyond the mind and the power of positive thinking to show us how to explore experience and work with all the vast levels of our being to bring about physical emotional mental and spiritual healing for ourselves and for the world John Robert Norman began his study of metaphysics in 1956 with the teachings of Paramahansa Yogananda He then immersed himself in the gamut of mystical and spiritual traditions and the ancient mystery schools in the study of comparative religions both esoteric and exoteric including the Rosicrucians Unity Science of Mind and the Kabbalah studies of the Builders of Adylum a modern mystery school which aspires to build the temple within and teaches that love is the only real power in the Universe His lifelong studies weave a solid foundation of practical teachings for healing and empowering our lives teachings that rest on true science and the proven natural laws of the cosmos John believed true teachings awaken the knowledge we already have within our own souls instead of leaving us wrestling with ideas we have to try to believe in but that ultimately disappoint Truth isn't something we have to understand but something we experience and simply know and once known ripples through our lives changing everything The information in each chapter logically builds from the preceding one so that the reader is able to grow in understanding and naturally learn to directly apply the laws and principles of Creation to his or her life from the most mundane to the gravest of situations John's Book is equally valuable for those just beginning their spiritual exploration as well as for those well along on their spiritual path His teachings bring greater understanding to common topics like manifesting and the chakra system for example Meditations and visualizations are offered to enable the reader a direct experience of the teachings In 1982 after twenty six years of study John devoted himself to teaching energy research and private counseling His clientele were from all walks of life from the very wealthy to the poorest of poor and included physicians and nurses psychiatrists authors artists and politicians who were drawn to him from throughout the United States and several foreign countries John was a gifted and generous healer and teacher until his passing in 1997 We all must find a way to continually renew and enhance our lives spiritually mentally emotionally and physically John has said It can be no other way His teachings are empowering in the most spiritual sense of the word and are urgent for the times in which we are living
