The Postmodern Representation of Reality in Peter Ackroyd's Chatterton Arya Aryan, 2022-06-08 This book explores the postmodernist representation of reality and argues that historiographic metafictional texts such as Peter Ackroyd's Chatterton 1987 are hetero referential in their creation of a heterocosm as opposed to representational and anti representational views of art It argues that postmodernist historiographic metafiction is not simply self referential but hetero referential consciously revealing the paradoxes of self referentiality while simultaneously creating a heterocosmic world where the text is capable of referring to an external reality The book highlights Chatterton's narrative strategies and techniques which result in revealing the text's meaning granting process The novel acknowledges the existence of reality and the text's possibility of representation but contends that reality is a human construct In addition the book demonstrates that representation is possible through fictive referents and thus hetero referential

Marx Through Post-Structuralism Simon Choat, 2010-06-17 Marx Through Post Structuralism presents a thorough critical examination of the readings of Marx given by four post structuralist thinkers all key figures in Continental philosophy Jean Fran ois Lyotard Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze Arguing that both Marx and the post structuralists seek to produce a genuinely materialist philosophy the author aims to develop a better understanding of both Marx and post structuralism and in so doing to reflect on the possibilities and problems for materialist philosophy more broadly Against the common assumption that post structuralism begins with a rejection of Marx Choat argues that Marx has been a key influence on post structuralist thought and that each of the four thinkers examined affirms Marx s contemporary significance By looking at how these thinkers have read Marx analysing their direct comments unspoken uses and implicit criticisms the book demonstrates that there is a distinct and original post structuralist approach to Marx that allows us to read him in a new light
