Shark Net Robert Drewe

The Shark Net Robert Drewe,2003-07-08 Written with the same lyrical intensity and spellbinding prose that has won Robert Drewe's fiction international acclaim The Shark Net is set in the 1950s in a city haunted by the menace of an elusive serial killer Drewe's youth in the middle class seaside suburb of Perth Australia often described as the most isolated city in the world takes a sinister turn when a social outcast who turns out to be an employee of Drewe's father embarks on a five year murder spree This unusual memoir brilliantly evokes the confluence of adolescent innocence and sexual awakening while a hare lipped killer who eventually murders eight people including one of Drewe's friends lurks in the shadows

The Shark Net Robert Drewe,2001 Aged six Robert Drewe moved with his family from Melbourne to Perth the world's most isolated city and proud of it This sun baked coast was innocently proud too of its tranquility and friendliness Then a man he knew murdered a boy he also knew The murderer randomly killed eight strangers variously shooting strangling stabbing bludgeoning and hacking his victims and running them down with cars and innocent Perth was changed forever To try to make sense of this time and place and of my own childhood and adolescence I had finally to write about it The result is The Shark Net a vibrant and haunting memoir that reaches beyond the dark recesses of murder and chaos to encompass their ordinary suburban backdrop The Shark Net shows one of Australia's most acclaimed writers charting new and exciting territory

The Beach Robert Drewe,2015-11-01 Robert Drewe internationally acclaimed writer writes here about the quintessential Australian experience Drewe looks at the sunny salty sexiness of the beach that first enticed the crusading Mr William Gocher into the ocean at Manly in 1903 defying authorities in his neck to knee bathing costume We ve come a long way from sunbathing in stockings and pantaloons to the unabashed display of sun kissed bodies of all shapes and sizes at any beach in the country today But the beach also has a dark side as a place of tragedy violence and danger a place where sharks attack prone surfers and prime ministers disappear Drewe s lyrical examination of Australian beach culture combines imagery from some of Australia s most celebrated photographers with his personal anecdotes a favourite boat a capsicum strewn beach a summer holiday with teenagers and an unwelcome great white This is a book for Australians dreaming of the beach that is those of us not there right now

Sand Robert Drewe,Kinsella John,2012 Renowned novelist and creative non fiction writer Robert Drewe teams up with internationally acclaimed poet John Kinsella to explore a common geography in poetry and prose Sand is quintessentially Australian It is a property from which many of our stories assumptions and geographical reckonings are drawn For Drewe and Kinsella it evokes the memories both personal and cultural that inspire the writing in this book

The Local Wildlife Robert Drewe, 2013 Welcome to the Northern Rivers where the local wildlife can refer to more than just the exotic native fauna After a decade spent in this picturesque corner of Australia home of chocolate coated women pythons in the ceiling online Russian brides deadly paralysis ticks and the mysterious Mullumbimby Monster Robert Drewe wiped the green zinc cream from his face and set down some of the unusual wildlife experiences that the far north coast of New South Wales home of the world's greatest variety of ants has to offer Drewe's trademark gentle wit acute observational powers and mastery of the English language are all on display in this collection of sketches and anecdotes based on the quirkiness of daily life His sharp eye for human foibles including his own is tempered with a generosity of spirit Tall tales from Australia's master of the short story but this time these short short stories are true Excuse me mate he asked the fluorescently green bespectacled half submerged man who was trying to put pen to paper while sitting in water flicking ants off his work and wincing as he shifted his buttock position Is that how writers do writing Yep I frowned verdantly over my glasses It's a very complicated job for brilliant description lively simile and a gift for drama and narrative Drewe is hard to match and these small apparently easy pieces have much in common with his more ambitious literary work Dennis Haskell Review
