Questions & Answers Anita Bernstein, David P. Leonard, 2004

Dispatches from the Ebony Tower Manning Marable, 2000

What constitutes black studies and where does this discipline stand at the end of the twentieth century In this wide ranging and original volume Manning Marable one of the leading scholars of African American history gathers key materials from contemporary thinkers who interrogate the richly diverse content and multiple meanings of the collective experiences of black folk Here are numerous voices expressing very different political cultural and historical views from black conservatives to black separatists to blacks who advocate radical democratic transformation Here are topics ranging from race and revolution in Cuba to the crack epidemic in Harlem to Afrocentrism and its critics All of these voices however are engaged in some aspect of what Marable sees as the essential triad of the black intellectual tradition describing the reality of black life and experiences critiquing racism and stereotypes or proposing positive steps for the empowerment of black people

Highlights from Dispatches from the Ebony Tower Henry Louis Gates Jr and Manning Marable debate the role of activism in black studies John Hope Franklin reflects on his role as chair of the President's race initiative Cornel West discusses topics that range from the future of the NAACP through the controversies surrounding Louis Farrakhan and black nationalism to the very question of what race means Amiri Baraka lays out strategies for a radical new curriculum in our schools and universities Marable's introduction provides a thorough overview of the history and current state of black studies in America

Africa in the 21st Century Ama Mazama, 2007-11-21

A Taste of Power Elaine Brown, 2015-05-20

Profound funny wild and moving heartbreaking accounts of a lonely black childhood Brown sees racial oppression in national and global context every political word she writes pounds home a lesson about commerce money racism communism you name it A glowing achievement Los Angeles Times Elaine Brown assumed her role as the first and only female leader of the Black Panther Party with these words I have all the guns and all the money I can withstand challenge from without and from within

Am I right Comrade It was August 1974 From a small Oakland based cell the Panthers had grown to become a revolutionary national organization mobilizing black communities and white supporters across the country but relentlessly targeted by the police and the FBI and increasingly riven by violence and strife within How Brown came to a position of power over this paramilitary male dominated organization and what she did with that power is a riveting unsparing account of self discovery Brown s story begins with growing up in an impoverished neighborhood in Philadelphia and attending a predominantly white school where she first sensed what it meant to be black female and poor in America She describes her political awakening during the bohemian years of her adolescence and her time as a foot soldier for the Panthers who seemed to hold the promise of redemption And she tells of her ascent into the upper echelons of Panther leadership her tumultuous relationship with the charismatic Huey Newton who would become her lover and her nemesis her experience with the male power rituals that would sow the seeds of the party s demise and the scars that she both suffered and inflicted in that era s paradigm shifting clashes of sex and power Stunning lyrical and acute this is the indelible testimony of a black woman s battle to define herself

Men and Memories William Rothenstein,1931 Man and Culture Bronislaw Malinowski,2001-11-29 This volume is a reassessment of Malinowski s work by a group of his former pupils and colleagues A frank evaluation not a eulogy it examines the real and lasting importance of Malinowski s contribution to a range of subjects
