Howliday Inn James Howe,2006-08 For use in schools and libraries only When their family goes on vacation Chester the cat and Harold the dog go to stay at Chateau Bow Wow where with the other residents they become involved in various mysteries and intrigues

Return to Howliday Inn James Howe,2012-01-24 First there is the omen A relentless rain stops suddenly at 3 00 am and Chester shows Harold and Howie a cat carrier open and waiting by the front door Chester who has been reading avidly about the paranormal predicts that they will soon be traveling someplace and chances are they are not going to like it Indeed they are not as the very next day with the sun shining bright and clear the Monroes finally leave for their vacation dropping Chester Harold and Howie off at the scene of some previous harrowing experiences Chateau Bow Wow the boarding kennel that Chester so aptly had dubbed Howliday Inn And this visit promises to be no less harrowing than the last one The three are greeted by a whole new group of temporary residents There s Hamlet the Great Dane whose sadness grows deeper with his certainty that his beloved master Archie will never return to pick him up And Bob and Linda a pair of yuppie puppies from fashionable Upper Centerville who have been left at Chateau Bow Wow with a more than adequate supply of gourmet treats also seem to have been left with a more than adequate supply of worries Then there are Felony and Miss Demeanor sinister sisters in crime who pride themselves as cat burglars and The Weasel who tries almost too hard to make a good impression Chester is certain that nothing bodes well and he is right Unexplained voices buried bones a collar with the name Rosebud on it and a secret code all make for a paranormal experience that none of the guests at Chateau Bow Wow will ever forget

Nighty-Nightmare James Howe,2012-01-24 An overnight camping trip Not Harold s idea of fun Too many mosquitoes ticks and cockleburs But when the Monroe family set out their faithful dog Harold was with them mostly because he remembered that camping could also bring s mores and toasted marshmallows Howie the other family dog and Chester the cat were also included in the trip Only Chester thought the idea was completely insane The woods he informed Harold were not only full of cockleburs and ticks but of spirits evil spirits who prey on the innocent And on this the worst night of the year St George s Eve when all spirits are set loose who knew what could happen What Harold knew was that Chester was a well read over stimulated cat full of weird ideas He did not take Chester s worries too seriously He had s more to think about But then the Monroes set up camp near two strange men and their even stranger dog and things began to happen that made even Harold wonder Could Chester be right This begins a long night full of terrors and alarms full of Chester s horrifying tale of how Bunnacula the vampire bunny was born and came to America full of storms and a total sense of danger and at the end came surprises that even Chester could not have predicted Once again the Monroe family may be the victims of evil forces or only of Chester s strange imagination But whichever the result is suspenseful and very very funny

Bunnacula Strikes Again! James Howe,2011-12-20 Let s just say the matter is under control Chester slyly tells his pals Harold and Howie But what on earth does he mean It seems that Bunnacula the vampire rabbit is back to his old ways or so Chester thinks having found pale vegetables drained of their juices scattered about the Monroe family kitchen And now once and for all Chester is determined to save the world from this threat But why has Bunnacula so frisky just a short time ago been so listless and tired of late Is this part of Chester s scheme Can Harold let Chester get away with hurting an innocent bunny no matter what his harebrained suspicions are It is not long before the Monroes notice Bunnacula s condition and rush him to the vet and then the chase is on ending up with a dramatic confrontation in a most unusual and dangerous location
