Hollywood Highbrow Shyon Baumann,2018-06-05 Today s moviegoers and critics generally consider some Hollywood products even some blockbusters to be legitimate works of art But during the first half century of motion pictures very few Americans would have thought to call an American movie art Up through the 1950s American movies were regarded as a form of popular even lower class entertainment By the 1960s and 1970s however viewers were regularly judging Hollywood films by artistic criteria previously applied only to high art forms In Hollywood Highbrow Shyon Baumann for the first time tells how social and cultural forces radically changed the public s perceptions of American movies just as those forces were radically changing the movies themselves The development in the United States of an appreciation of film as an art was Baumann shows the product of large changes in Hollywood and American society as a whole With the postwar rise of television American movie audiences shrank dramatically and Hollywood responded by appealing to richer and more educated viewers Around the same time European ideas about the director as artist an easing of censorship and the development of art house cinemas film festivals and the academic field of film studies encouraged the idea that some American movies and not just European ones deserved to be considered art The Roof Garden Commission Beatrice Galilee, Adrián Villar Rojas, 2017-04-13 Celebrated Argentinian artist Adrián Villar Rojas is known for his site specific sculptural installations For The Theater of Disappearance the artist mines The Met's collection drawing on the five thousand years of world history within its galleries to create an elaborate ahistorical work Set atop the Iris and B Gerald Cantor Roof Garden Villar Rojas's installation transforms the space into a performative diorama where banquet tables occupy an oversized black and white checkerboard floor punctuated by sculptures that fuse together human figures and artifacts found within the museum The resulting juxtapositions put forth a radical reinterpretation of museum practices This illustrated book is the fifth edition in a series that documents and contextualizes The Met's annual rooftop commissions The introductory essay by Beatrice Galilee explores the conceptual framework that informs Villar Rojas's remarkable commission as well as his interventions around the world While exploring the Museum Villar Rojas took thousands of photographs of objects and moments of interest A selection of these images is featured here alongside the artist's commentary offering a unique visual diary of Villar Rojas's thought process as he developed this arresting installation

Half the Sky Nicholas D. Kristof, Sheryl WuDunn, 2010-06-01 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A passionate call to arms against our era's most pervasive human rights violation the oppression of women and girls in the developing world From the bestselling authors of Tightrope two of our most fiercely moral voices With Pulitzer Prize winners Nicholas D. Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn as our guides we undertake an odyssey through Africa and Asia to meet the extraordinary women struggling there among them a Cambodian teenager sold into sex slavery and an Ethiopian woman who suffered devastating injuries in childbirth Drawing on the breadth of their combined reporting experience Kristof and WuDunn depict our world with anger sadness clarity and ultimately hope They show how a little help can transform the lives of women and girls abroad That Cambodian girl eventually escaped from her brothel and with assistance from an aid group built a thriving retail business that supports her family The Ethiopian woman had her injuries repaired and in time became a surgeon A Zimbabwean mother of five counseled to return to school earned her doctorate and became an expert on AIDS Through these stories Kristof and WuDunn help us see that the key to economic progress lies in unleashing women's potential They make clear how so many people have helped to do just that and how we can each do our part Throughout much of the world the greatest unexploited economic resource is the female half of the population Countries such as China have prospered precisely because they emancipated women and brought them into the formal economy Unleashing that process globally is not only the right thing to do it s also the best strategy for fighting poverty Deeply felt pragmatic and inspirational Half the Sky is essential reading for every global citizen Living Well, Spending Less Ruth Soukup,2014-12-30 If you struggle to simplify your life and wish you could savor the here and now this book is a must read Crystal Paine founder of MoneySavingMom com and New York Times bestselling author Have you ever felt that your life and budget is spiraling out of control Do you sometimes wish you could pull yourself together but wonder exactly how to manage all the scattered pieces of a chaotic life Is it possible to find balance In a word yes Ruth Soukup knows firsthand how stressful an unorganized life and budget can be Through personal stories biblical truth and practical action plans she will inspire you to make real and lasting changes to your personal goals home and finances With honesty and the wisdom of someone who has been there Ruth will help you Discover your sweet spot that place where your talents and abilities intersect Take back your time and schedule by making simple shifts in your daily habits Reduce stress in your home and family by clearing out the clutter Stop busting your budget and learn to cut your grocery bill in half This book provides real and practical solutions from someone who has been there Ruth doesn t just offer advice she walks it with you and shares with brutal honesty her own mistakes failures and shortcomings It is encouraging motivating and life changing An inspiring book full of step by step instructions and spiritual wisdom I love how Ruth is transparent about her mistakes as she leads us to reevaluate our priorities This book is a great biblical guide to living well and finding joy Courtney Joseph founder of Women Living Well Ministries Illinois Alumni News ,1918
