The Priest Is Not His Own Fulton J. Sheen, Most books on the priesthood may be grouped into three categories theological pastoral and sociological The theological treatises emphasize the priest as the minister and ambassador of Christ the pastoral writings are concerned with the priest in the pulpit the priest in the confessional the priest at prayer etc The sociological writings which are the latest type refrain almost entirely from the spiritual and are concerned with the statistical study of the reaction of the faithful the unbelievers and the general public to the priest Is there room for another category Such a possibility presented itself in writing our Life of Christ In that book we tried to show that unlike anyone else Our Lord came on earth not to live but to die Death for our Redemption was the goal of His sojourn here the gold that He was seeking Every parable every incident in His life even the call of the Apostles the temptation the Transfiguration the long conversation with the woman at the well was focused upon that salutary death He was therefore not primarily a teacher but a Savior The dark days in which that Life of Christ was written were hours when ink and gall did mix to reveal the mystery of the Crucifix More and more that vision of Christ as Savior began to illumine the priesthood and out of it came the thoughts in this book To save anyone from reading it through we here state briefly the thesis We who have received the Sacrament of Orders call ourselves priests The author does not recall any priest ever having said I was ordained a victim nor did he ever say I am studying to be a victim That seemed almost alien to being a priest The seminary always told us to be good priests never were we told to be willing victims And yet was not Christ the Priest a Victim Did He not come to die He did not offer a lamb a bullock or doves He never offered anything except Himself He gave Himself up on our behalf a sacrifice breathing out fragrance as He offered it to God Ephesians 5 2 Pagan priests Old Testament priests medicine men all offered a sacrifice apart from themselves But not Our Lord He was Sacerdos Victima This being so just as we miss much in the life of Christ by not showing that the shadow of the Cross cast itself even over the crib and the carpenter shop as well as over His public life so we have a mutilated concept of our priesthood if we envisage it apart from making ourselves victims in the prolongation of His Incarnation There is nothing else in this book but that idea And if the reader would like to hear that chord struck a hundred times he may now proceed

The Wife Desired Fr. Leo Kinsella, The role of the girl in life is the most glamorous and fascinating in all the world To the nomads of the East she is the little gazelle and to the Japanese the plum blossom In the Book of Proverbs she is the dearest hind and most agreeable fawn Jewels sapphires and rubies are her eyes and lips The softness of a spring morning are in her words Her smile is as the splendor of the rising sun Of all the creatures in the world she is made by God the most beautiful She is the incarnation and summation of all the flowers of nature No man ever spoke more truth than when he whispered into the ear of his beloved that she was divine She is an image a spark of divinity given to us in life as a preview of things to come She is yielding helpless yet divine To whom God has given much from her much is expected Of no other creature is so much demanded She is to be the helpmate of man the mother of his children She is to keep his home to comfort him in loneliness and weariness and to bring him back to health when sick This appraisal of the part a girl plays in life may seem to some flattering Yet it is sincerely made Actually this judgment of the ladies is more challenging than flattering for what girl could fail to desire to measure up to this appraisal in the eyes of her husband Countless young wives have merited from their husbands the esteem that they were the most glamorous and fascinating creatures in all the world Unfortunately too many girls have failed to do so and thus experience the misery of an unhappy if not broken marriage The purpose of this book is to show the girl the young wife how she may easily have success and happiness in marriage being in the eyes of her husband the dearest hind and most agreeable fawn This classic includes the following chapters 1 The Wife Desired Is an Inspiration to Her Husband 2 The Wife Desired Has Personality 3 The Wife Desired Is Patient 4 The Wife Desired Is a Physical Being 5 The Wife Desired Has a Sense of Humor 6 The Wife Desired Is a Companion to Her Husband 7 The Wife Desired Is Religious

The World's First Love Fulton John Sheen, 1963

Called to Love Carl Anderson, Jose Granados, 2012-07-31 A thoughtful accessible work on the beauty of love and the splendor of the body inspired by Pope John Paul II Christianity has long been regarded as viewing the body as a threat to a person's spiritual nature and of denying its sexual dimension In 1979 Pope John Paul II departed from this traditional dichotomy and offered an integrated vision of the human body and soul In a series of talks that came to be known as the theology of the body he explained the divine meaning of human sexuality and why the body provides answers to fundamental questions about our lives In Called to Love Carl Anderson chairman of the world's largest catholic service organization and Fr Jose Granados discuss the philosophical and religious significance of the theology of the body in language at once poetic and profound As they explain the body speaks of God it reveals His goodness and it also speaks of men and women and their vocation to love Called to Love brings to life the tremendous gift John Paul II bestowed on humanity and gives readers a new understanding of the Christian way of love and how to embrace it fully in their lives

Selling Catholicism Christopher Owen Lynch, 2014-10-17 When the popularity of Milton Berle's television show began to slip Berle quipped At least I'm losing my ratings to God He was referring to the popularity of Life Is Worth Living and its host Bishop Fulton J Sheen The show aired from 1952 to 1957 and Sheen won an Emmy beating competition that included Lucille Ball Jimmy Durante and Edward R Murrow What was the secret to Sheen's on air success Christopher Lynch examines how he reached a diverse audience by using television to synthesize traditional American Protestantism with a reassuring vision of Catholicism as patriotic and traditional Sheen provided his viewers with a sense of stability by sentimentalizing the medieval world and holding it out as a model for contemporary society Offering clear cut moral direction in order to eliminate the anxiety of cultural change he discussed topics ranging from the role of women to the perils of Communism Sheen's rhetoric united both Protestant and Catholic audiences reflecting and forming a vision of mainstream postwar America Lynch argues that Sheen's persuasive television presentations helped Catholics gain social acceptance and paved the way for religious ecumenism in America Yet Sheen's work also sowed the seeds for the crisis of competing ideologies in the modern American Catholic Church
