The Art of Negotiation Michael Wheeler, 2013-10-08 A member of the world renowned Program on Negotiation at Harvard Law School introduces the powerful next generation approach to negotiation For many years two approaches to negotiation have prevailed the win win method exemplified in Getting to Yes by Roger Fisher William Ury and Bruce Patton and the hard bargaining style of Herb Cohen's You Can Negotiate Anything Now award winning Harvard Business School professor Michael Wheeler provides a dynamic alternative to one size fits all strategies that don't match real world realities The Art of Negotiation shows how master negotiators thrive in the face of chaos and uncertainty They don't trap themselves with rigid plans Instead they understand negotiation as a process of exploration that demands ongoing learning adapting and influencing Their agility enables them to reach agreement when others would be stalemated Michael Wheeler illuminates the improvisational nature of negotiation drawing on his own research and his work with Program on Negotiation colleagues He explains how the best practices of diplomats such as George J Mitchell dealmaker Bruce Wasserstein and Hollywood producer Jerry Weintraub apply to everyday transactions like selling a house buying a car or landing a new contract Wheeler also draws lessons on agility and creativity from fields like jazz sports theater and even military science

Dogen's Manuals of Zen Meditation Carl Bielefeldt, 1990-08-16 Zen Buddhism is perhaps best known for its emphasis on meditation and probably no figure in the history of Zen is more closely associated with meditation practice than the thirteenth century Japanese master Dogen founder of the Soto school This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization The Soto version of Zen meditation is known as just sitting a practice in which through the cultivation of the subtle state of nonthinking the meditator is said to be brought into perfect accord with the higher consciousness of the Buddha mind inherent in all beings This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization

Regulation of Genome Editing in Plant Biotechnology Hans-Georg Dederer, David Hamburger, 2019-08-16 This book provides in depth insights into the regulatory frameworks of five countries and the EU concerning the regulation of genome edited plants The country reports form the basis for a comparative analysis of the various national regulations governing genetically modified organisms GMOs in general and genome edited plants in particular as well as the underlying regulatory approaches The reports which focus on the regulatory status quo of genome edited plants in Argentina Australia Canada the EU Japan and the USA were written by distinguished experts following a uniform structure On this basis the legal frameworks are compared in order to foster a rational assessment of which approaches could be drawn upon to adjust or to completely realign the current EU regime for GMOs In addition a separate chapter identifies potential best practices for the regulation of plants derived from genome editing

Tea in Health and Disease Prevention Victor R Preedy, 2012-10-01 While there have been many claims of the benefits of teas through the years and while there is nearly universal agreement that drinking tea can benefit health there is still a concern over whether the lab generated results are representative of real life benefit what the risk of toxicity might be and what the effective level thresholds are for various purposes Clearly there are still questions about the efficacy and use of tea for health benefit This book presents a comprehensive look at the compounds in black green and white teas their reported benefits or toxicity risks and also explores them on a health condition specific level providing researchers and academics with a single volume resource to help in identifying potential treatment uses No other book on the market considers all the varieties of teas in one volume or takes the disease focused approach that will assist in directing further research and studies Interdisciplinary presentation of material assists in identifying potential cross over benefits and similarities between tea sources and diseases Assists in identifying therapeutic benefits for new product development Includes coverage and comparison of the most important types of tea green black and white

Preface to Plato Eric A. HAVELOCK,2009-06-30 Plato s frontal attack on poetry has always been a problem for sympathetic students who have often minimized or avoided it Beginning with the premise that the attack must be taken seriously Eric Havelock shows that Plato s hostility is explained by the continued domination of the poetic tradition in contemporary Greek thought The reason for the dominance of this tradition was technological In a nonliterate culture stored experience necessary to cultural stability had to be preserved as poetry in order to be memorized Plato attacks poets particularly Homer as the sole source of Greek moral and technical instruction Mr Havelock shows how the Iliad acted as an oral encyclopedia Under the label of mimesis Plato condemns the poetic process of emotional identification and the necessity of presenting content as a series of specific images in a continued narrative The second part of the book discusses the Platonic Forms as an aspect of an increasingly rational culture Literate Greece demanded instead of poetic discourse a vocabulary and a sentence structure both abstract and explicit in which experience could be described normatively and analytically in short a language of ethics and science

Nudge Richard H. Thaler, Cass R. Sunstein, 2009-02-24 Now available Nudge The Final Edition The original edition of the multimillion copy New York Times bestseller by the winner of the Nobel Prize in Economics Richard H Thaler and Cass R Sunstein a revelatory look at how we make decisions for fans of Malcolm Gladwell s Blink Charles Duhigg s The Power of Habit James Clear s Atomic Habits and Daniel Kahneman s Thinking Fast and Slow Named a Best Book of the Year by The Economist and the Financial Times Every day we make choices about what to buy or eat about financial investments or our children s health and education even about the causes we champion or the planet itself Unfortunately we often choose poorly Nudge is about how we make these choices and how we can make better ones Using dozens of eye opening examples and drawing on decades of behavioral science research Nobel Prize winner Richard H Thaler and Harvard Law School professor Cass R Sunstein show that no choice is ever presented to us in a neutral way and that we are all susceptible to biases that can lead us to make bad decisions But by knowing how people think we can use sensible choice architecture to nudge people toward the best decisions for ourselves our families and our society without restricting our freedom of choice

Construction and Building Research Carmen Llinares-Millán, Igor Fernández-Plazaola, Francisco Hidalgo-Delgado, María Montserrat Martínez-Valenzuela, Francisco Javier Medina-Ramón, Inmaculada Oliver-Faubel, Isabel Rodríguez-Abad, Andrea Salandin, Rafael Sánchez-Grandia, Isabel Tort-Ausina, 2014-01-31 Many areas of knowledge converge in the building industry and therefore research in this field necessarily involves an interdisciplinary approach Effective research requires strong relation between a broad variety of scientific and technological domains and more conventional construction or craft processes while also considering advanced management processes where all the main actors permanently interact This publication takes an interdisciplinary approach grouping various studies on the building industry chosen from among the works presented for the 2nd International Conference on Construction and Building Research The papers examine aspects of materials and building systems construction technology energy and sustainability construction management heritage refurbishment and conservation The information contained within these pages may be of interest to researchers and practitioners in construction and building activities from the academic sphere as well as public and private sectors
