Special features include Research Briefs, Tech Tips, Internet Resources, Reflection and Action Questions, and dozens of reproducible student activities and assessment tools. The writing/reading connection means more than having your students write under the influence of literature that they have read! Noted author and educator Connie Campbell Dierking shows you how to develop a literacy-connected classroom, including using oral storytelling to scaffold primary reading and writing. She supplies more than 50 mini-lessons--organized by their classroom function--to help you explicitly teach foundational literacy skills during writer's workshop or whole-class and small-group reading instruction. Dierking encourages you to make the most of the writing/reading connection by thinking about some basic questions when you're crafting your literacy instruction: How can I connect the conversations in reading and writing workshop? What can I learn about the readers in my classroom through their writing? What can my students learn about reading through writing? How can I teach young writers to support their readers? How can I teach readers how to use a writer's supports intentionally? This fiction hybrid reader includes high-frequency and decodable words as well as illustrations for students in the Being a Reader program in grades K-2. The reader's topic is studying for a spelling test. Does your child dream of winning a school spelling bee, or even competing in the Scripps National Spelling Bee in the Washington, D.C., area? The book is perfect for creative, active and imaginative children who like animals. The activities are fun and they use logic to show children how to teach themselves to spell 150 important words! We teach spelling without flash cards, quizzes or test. We do not ask children to memorize lists. Instead we use art, logic and creativity to help children to remember how to spell all of these essential spelling words.This book is designed for children who can read on a second grade level or higher. Children will use this book to practice reading, writing, spelling, logic, art, drawing, coloring, creating calendars and for writing their own stories and poems. If the child is Dyslexic this book should follow Dyslexia Games Series B. This book uses the Open Dyslexic Font and also gives children the opportunity to color their spelling words. The activities bounce back and forth between coloring, drawing, finding the missing parts of poems and pictures while the students use their imagination. This activity book is designed for children who need right brain stimulation while learning how to read, write and spell. This book teaches spelling though rhyming, whole word visual picturing, logic, copying, coloring, and memory boosting games. If your child struggles with phonics instruction, don't worry! This is the perfect activity book to help teach spelling, reading and writing to students who learn in unique ways and struggle with phonics! This book includes many fun activities like making monthly calendars and making up poems and stories using their spelling words. The artwork in this book is very cute with nature and animals as the theme. The main character is a whimsical little girl. Some little boys may think the book is for girls, although many of the animal friends are boys. If your child can read and just needs to practice spelling, then you can assign two "Do-It-Yourself" Pages every day. If your child is a struggling reader you will need to take three minutes per day to read the poem with your child. Finally! Spelling can be a FUN part of your child's education! Vernon's Graded Word Spelling Test is a widely used, standardised test designed to assess spelling attainment and progress from age 5 to 18+ years. This revised edition provides new norms which are reliable and fully up to date: the target words, graded in order of current difficulty, are unchanged. The Graded Word Spelling Test is designed for use throughout the years of compulsory schooling, and extends to the level of spelling reached by well-educated adults. Its wide range is achieved by the presentation of 80 test words, graded in order of difficulty and each placed in the context of a short sentence. Many of these sentences have been re-cast to be more relevant to functional literacy today. The Graded Word Spelling Test takes only 20-30 minutes to give to individuals or to a group. This new edition provides norms as standardised scores, percentiles and Spelling Ages, based on a national standardisation sample of over 3500 pupils, students and trainees. The words have also been analysed to classify and match them to the National Literacy Strategy and the Key Stage 3 National Strategy Framework for Teaching English, so that teachers may more easily identify particular patterns of strengths and weaknesses in a student's spelling.
