Ecopsychology Restoring The Earth Healing Mind Theodore Roszak

Ecopsychology Theodore Roszak, Mary E. Gomes, Allen D. Kanner, 1995 This pathfinding collection by premier psychotherapists thinkers and eco activists in the field shows how the health of the planet is inextricably linked to the psychological health of humanity individually and collectively It is sure to become a definitive work for the ecopsychology movement Forewords by Lester O Brown and James Hillman

The Voice of the Earth Theodore Roszak, 2001-01-01 What is the bond between the human psyche and the living planet that nurtured us and all of life into existence What is the link between our own mental health and the health of the greater biosphere In this bold ambitious philosophical essay Publishers Weekly historian and cultural critic Roszak explores the relationships between psychology ecology and new scientific insights into systems in nature Drawing on our understanding of the evolutionary self organizing universe Roszak illuminates our rootedness in the greater web of life and explores the relationship between our own sanity and the larger than human world The Voice of the Earth seeks to bridge the centuries old split between the psychological and the ecological with a paradigm which sees the needs of the planet and the needs of the person as a continuum The Earth s cry for rescue from the punishing weight of the industrial system we have created is our own cry for a scale and quality of life that will free us to become whole and healthy This second edition contains a new afterword by the author

Ecotherapy Linda Buzzell, Craig Chalquist, 2009-05-12 In the 14 years since Sierra Club Books published Theodore Roszak Mary E Gomes and Allen D Kanner s groundbreaking anthology Ecopsychology Restoring the Earth Healing the Mind the editors of this new volume have often been asked Where can I find out more about the psyche world connection How can I do hands on work in this area Ecotherapy was compiled to answer these and other urgent questions Ecotherapy or applied ecopsychology encompasses a broad range of nature based methods of psychological healing grounded in the crucial fact that people are inseparable from the rest of nature and nurtured by healthy interaction with the Earth Leaders in the field including Robert Greenway and Mary Watkins contribute essays that take into account the latest scientific understandings and the deepest indigenous wisdom Other key thinkers from Bill McKibben to Richard Louv to Joanna Macy explore the links among ecotherapy spiritual development and restoring community As mental health professionals find themselves challenged to provide hard evidence that their practices actually work and as costs for traditional modes of psychotherapy rise rapidly out of sight this book offers practitioners and interested lay readers alike a spectrum of safe effective alternative approaches backed by a growing body of research

The Voice of the Earth Theodore Roszak, 1993 An historian and cultural critic explores the relationships between psychology ecology and new scientific insights into systems in nature Drawing on our understanding of the evolutionary self organizing universe Roszak discusses our rootedness in the greater web of life and explores the relationship between our own sanity and the larger than human world

The Earth, the City, and the Hidden Narrative of Race Carl Anthony,2017-10-10 In this work Carl Anthony shares his perspectives as an African American child in post World War II Philadelphia a student and civil rights activist in 1960s Harlem a traveling student of West African architecture and an architect planner and environmental justice advocate in Berkeley He contextualizes this within American urbanism and human origins making profoundly personal both African American and American urban histories as well as planetary origins and environmental issues to not only bring a new worldview to people of color but to set forth a truly inclusive vision of our shared planetary future The Earth the City and the Hidden Narrative of Race connects the logics behind slavery community disinvestment and environmental exploitation to address the most pressing issues of our time in a cohesive and foundational manner Most books dealing with these topics and periods silo issues apart from one another but this book contextualizes the connections between social movements and issues providing tremendous insight into successful movement building Anthony s rich narrative describes both being at the mercy of racism urban disinvestment and environmental injustice as well as fighting against these forces with a variety of strategies Because this work is both a personal memoir and an exposition of ideas it will appeal to those who appreciate thoughtful and unique writing on issues of race including individuals exploring their own African American identity as well as progressive audiences of organizations and community leaders and professionals interested in democratizing power and advancing equitable policies for low income communities and historically disenfranchised communities

THE MAKING OF A COUNTER CULTURE THEODORE ROSZAK,1969

Last Child in the Woods Richard Louv, 2008-04-22 The Book That Launched an International Movement Fans of The Anxious Generation will adore Last Child in the Woods Richard Louv's groundbreaking New York Times bestseller An absolute must read for parents The Boston Globe It rivals Rachel Carson's Silent Spring The Cincinnati Enquirer I like to play indoors better cause that's where all the electrical outlets are reports a fourth grader But it's not only computers television and video games that are keeping kids inside It's also their parents fears of traffic strangers Lyme disease and West Nile virus their schools emphasis on more and more homework their structured schedules and their lack of access to natural areas Local governments neighborhood associations and even organizations devoted to the outdoors are placing legal and regulatory constraints on many wild spaces sometimes making natural play a crime As children's connections to nature diminish and the social psychological and spiritual implications become apparent new research shows that nature can offer powerful therapy for such maladies as depression obesity and attention deficit disorder Environment based education dramatically improves standardized test scores and grade point averages and develops skills in problem solving critical thinking and decision making Anecdotal evidence strongly suggests that childhood experiences in nature stimulate creativity In Last Child in the Woods Louv talks with parents children teachers scientists religious leaders child development researchers and environmentalists who recognize the threat and offer solutions Louv shows us an alternative future one in which parents help their kids experience the natural world more deeply and find the joy of family connectedness in the process Included in this edition A Field Guide with 100 Practical Actions We Can Take Discussion Points for Book Groups Classrooms and Communities Additional Notes by the Author New and Updated Research from the U S and Abroad

Ecopsychology Peter H. Kahn, Jr., Patricia H. Hasbach, 2012-07-20 An ecopsychology that integrates our totemic selves our kinship with a more than human world with our technological selves We need nature for our physical and psychological well being Our actions reflect this when we turn to beloved pets for companionship vacation in spots of natural splendor or spend hours working in the garden Yet we are also a technological species and have been since we fashioned tools out of stone Thus one of this century's central challenges is to embrace our kinship with a more than human world our totemic self and integrate that kinship with our scientific culture and technological selves This book takes on that challenge and proposes a reenvisioned ecopsychology Contributors consider such topics as the innate tendency for people to bond with local place a meaningful nature language the epidemiological evidence for the health benefits of nature interaction the theory and practice of ecotherapy Gaia theory ecovillages the neuroscience of perceiving natural beauty and sacred geography Taken together the essays offer a vision for human flourishing and for a more grounded and realistic environmental psychology

Ecological Identity Mitchell Thomashow, 1996-07-25 Through theoretical discussion as well as hands on participatory learning approaches Thomashow provides concerned citizens teachers and students with the tools needed to become reflective environmentalists Mitchell Thomashow a preeminent educator shows how environmental studies can be taught from different perspective one that is deeply informed by personal reflection Through theoretical discussion as well as hands on participatory learning approaches Thomashow provides concerned citizens teachers and students with the tools needed to become reflective environmentalists What do I know about the place where I live Where do things come from How do I connect to the earth What is my purpose as a human being These are the questions that Thomashow identifies as being at the heart of environmental education Developing a profound sense of oneself in relationship to natural and social ecosystems is necessary grounding for the difficult work of environmental advocacy In this book he provides a clear and accessible guide to the learning experiences that accompany the construction of an ecological identity using the direct experience of nature as a framework for personal decisions professional choices political action and spiritual inquiry Ecological Identity covers the different types of environmental thought and activism using John Muir Henry David Thoreau and Rachel Carson as environmental archetypes but branching out into ecofeminism and bioregionalism issues of personal property and consumption political identity and citizenship and integrating ecological identity work into environmental studies programs Each chapter has accompanying learning activities such as the Sense of Place Map a Community Network Map and the Political Genogram most of which can be carried out on an individual basis Although people from diverse backgrounds become environmental activists and enroll in environmental studies programs they are rarely encouraged to examine their own history motivations and aspirations Thomashow s approach is to reveal the depth of personal experience that underlies contemporary environmentalism and to explore interpret and nurture the learning spaces made possible when people are moved to contemplate their experience of nature

A Redemptive Path Forward Antong Lucky, 2023-05-09 A motivational memoir by a formerly incarcerated man who transformed from founder and leader of the Dallas Bloods to a practitioner of peace and nonviolence in the neighborhood he once helped destroy As a child of an incarcerated father Antong Lucky grew up in an impoverished crime ridden neighborhood in East Dallas Texas born at the same time as East Dallas experienced an alarming rise in crack cocaine and heroin use Despite his high grades and passion for learning Antong is introduced to gang life and its consequences Eventually Antong forms the Dallas Bloods gang inaugurating a period in the 1990s of escalating retaliatory gun violence buoyed by a lucrative illegal drug enterprise until he is ultimately arrested and sentenced to seven years in prison His journey through the doors of transformation came through the pain of incarceration and introspection that caused him to question the cognitive distortions embedded in him since childhood Once in prison Antong denounced his gang affiliation and began working to unite rival gangs quickly rising to become one of the most respected and sought after mentors in prison A spiritual transformation further inspired Antong to return to his old neighborhood after early release seeking to align with like minded people dedicated to challenging systemic issues in U S communities through collective efforts The work of an incisive determined mind A Redemptive Path Forward will take its place among the broadening canon of titles championing and investigating prison reform and societal transformation
