Month Library Journal Editors Pick In the spirit of Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother Bringing up B b and The Smartest Kids in the World a hard hitting exploration of China s widely acclaimed yet insular education system that raises important questions for the future of American parenting and education When students in Shanghai rose to the top of international rankings in 2009 Americans feared that they were being out educated by the rising super power An American journalist of Chinese descent raising a young family in Shanghai Lenora Chu noticed how well behaved Chinese children were compared to her boisterous toddler How did the Chinese create their academic super achievers Would their little boy benefit from Chinese school Chu and her husband decided to enroll three year old Rainer in China s state run public school system The results were positive her son quickly settled down became fluent in Mandarin and enjoyed his friends but she also began to notice troubling new behaviors Wondering what was happening behind closed classroom doors she embarked on an exploratory journey interviewing Chinese parents teachers and education professors and following students at all stages of their education What she discovered is a military like education system driven by high stakes testing with teachers posting rankings in public using bribes to reward students who comply and shaming to isolate those who do not At the same time she uncovered a years long desire by government to alleviate its students crushing academic burden and make education friendlier for all The more she learns the more she wonders Are Chinese children and her son paying too high a price for their obedience and the promise of future academic prowess Is there a way to appropriate the excellence of the system but dispense with the bad What if anything could Westerners learn from China s education journey Chu s eye opening investigation challenges our assumptions and asks us to consider the true value and purpose of education A Century of Innovation 3M Company,2002 A compilation of 3M voices memories facts and experiences from the company s first 100 years Radio-electronics ,1987
