J. Russell,2014-04-01 This is a book about sinners for sinners by quite a big sinner You may not like it You may even hate it as some are sure to do You may dislike the theme for though it introduces lovely people it comes to grips with an unlovely subject And solves its riddle You may dislike the characters as they are limned in print but not in real life As they are all living you may encounter them yourself someday and discover their excellence At least one will live on as an historic figure when this generation has merged with the ages Perhaps many Meanwhile none can disprove the contents of this book or avoid its challenge The story is true the challenge is to you Submarine Commander Paul R. Schratz,2013-07-24 A fascinating personal memoir of underwater combat in World War II told by a man who played a major role in those dangerous operations Frank and beautifully written Submarine Commander s breezy style and irrepressible humor place it in a class by itself This book will be of lasting value as a submarine history by an expert and as an enduring military and political analysis In early 1943 the submarine USS Scorpion with Paul R Schratz as torpedo officer slipped into the shallow waters east of Tokyo laid a minefield and made successful torpedo attacks on merchant shipping Schratz participated in many more patrols in heavily mined Japanese waters as executive officer of the Sterlet and the Atule At war s end he participated in the Japanese surrender aided the release of American POWs and had a key role in the disarming of enemy suicide submarines He then took command of the revolutionary new Japanese submarine I 203 and returned it to Pearl Harbor But this was far from the end of Schratz s submarine career In 1949 he commissioned the ultramodern USS Pickerel the most deadly submarine then afloat and set a world s record in a 21 day 5 200 mile submerged passage from Hong Kong to Honolulu With the outbreak of the Korean War the Pickerel was immediately sent to Korea to participate in secret intelligence operations only recently declassified and never before revealed in print Schratz s broad military experience makes this a far from ordinary memoir South Africa and the Transvaal War Louis Creswicke,1900 Employes' Magazine Lehigh Valley Coal Company,1914
