How Doctors Think Jerome Groopman, 2008-03-12 On average a physician will interrupt a patient describing her symptoms within eighteen seconds In that short time many doctors decide on the likely diagnosis and best treatment Often decisions made this way are correct but at crucial moments they can also be wrong with catastrophic consequences In this myth shattering book Jerome Groopman pinpoints the forces and thought processes behind the decisions doctors make Groopman explores why doctors err and shows when and how they can with our help avoid snap judgments embrace uncertainty communicate effectively and deploy other skills that can profoundly impact our health This book is the first to describe in detail the warning signs of erroneous medical thinking and reveal how new technologies may actually hinder accurate diagnoses How Doctors Think offers direct intelligent questions patients can ask their doctors to help them get back on track Groopman draws on a wealth of research extensive interviews with some of the country's best doctors and his own experiences as a doctor and as a patient He has learned many of the lessons in this book the hard way from his own mistakes and from errors his doctors made in treating his own debilitating medical problems How Doctors Think reveals a profound new view of twenty first century medical practice giving doctors and patients the vital information they need to make better judgments together

Complications Atul Gawande,2003-04-01 A brilliant and courageous doctor reveals in gripping accounts of true cases the power and limits of modern medicine Sometimes in medicine the only way to know what is truly going on in a patient is to operate to look inside with one's own eyes This book is exploratory surgery on medicine itself laying bare a science not in its idealized form but as it actually is complicated perplexing and profoundly human Atul Gawande offers an unflinching view from the scalpel's edge where science is ambiguous information is limited the stakes are high yet decisions must be made In dramatic and revealing stories of patients and doctors he explores how deadly mistakes occur and why good surgeons go bad He also shows us what happens when medicine comes up against the inexplicable an architect with incapacitating back pain for which there is no physical cause a young woman with nausea that won't go away a television newscaster whose blushing is so severe that she cannot do her job Gawande offers a richly detailed portrait of the people and the science even as he tackles the paradoxes and imperfections inherent in caring for human lives At once tough minded and humane Complications is a new kind of medical writing nuanced and lucid unafraid to confront the conflicts and uncertainties that lie at the heart of modern medicine yet always alive to the possibilities of wisdom in this extraordinary endeavor Complications is a 2002 National Book Award Finalist for Nonfiction

But great science writing adds honey in the form of engaging characters, stories, and wit to make the medicine go down. This anthology reveals the essential humanity in our endless quest for knowledge and understanding. From a study of avian mating habits with unintended political implications to a sober exploration of the panic surrounding artificial intelligence. The Best Science and Nature Writing 2011 offers food for thought in a variety of flavors. The Best Science and Nature Writing 2011 includes entries by Deborah Blum, Burkhard Bilger, Ian Frazier, David H. Sutton, 2007-02-22 The definitive guide to working with and surviving bullies, creeps, jerks, tyrants, tormentors, despots, backstabbers, egomaniacs, and all the other assholes who do their best to destroy you at work. What an asshole. How many times have you said that about someone at work? You're not alone. In this groundbreaking book, Stanford University professor Robert I. Sutton builds on his acclaimed Harvard Business Review article to show you the best ways to deal with assholes and why they can be so destructive to your company. Practical, compassionate, and in places downright funny, this guide offers strategies on how to pinpoint and eliminate negative influences for good. Illuminating case histories from major organizations. A self-diagnostic test and a program to identify and keep your own inner jerk from coming out. The No Asshole Rule is a New York Times, Wall Street Journal, USA Today, and Business Week bestseller. The Tennis Partner Abraham Verghese, 2023-12-12 An unforgettable, illuminating story of how men live and how they survive. From Abraham Verghese, the acclaimed New York Times bestselling author of Cutting for Stone and The Covenant of Water, an Oprah's Book Club Pick. This friendship between doctor and intern grows increasingly rich and complex, more intimate than two men usually allow. Just when it seems nothing can go wrong, the dark beast from David's past emerges once again, and almost everything Verghese has come to trust and believe in is threatened as David spirals out of control. The Boo Pat Conroy, 2010-11-16 The #1 New York Times bestselling author's story about life at the Citadel in the 1960s, a profound exploration of what it means to be a man of honor.
