o summarizes and develops a cross section of the issues he has grappled with in his work which deploys a strategy of imagery language folklore and character to decolonize the mind Ngugi confronts the politics of language in African writing the problem of linguistic imperialism and literature's ability to resist it the difficult balance between orality or orature and writing or literature the tension between national and world literature and the role of the literary curriculum in both reaffirming and undermining the dominance of the Western canon Throughout he engages a range of philosophers and theorists writing on power and postcolonial creativity including Hegel Marx L vi Strauss and Aim C saire Yet his explorations remain grounded in his own experiences with literature and orature and reworks the difficult dialectics of theory into richly evocative prose Dar Es Salaam by Night Ben R. Mtobwa,1999 A Companion to African Literatures Olakunle George,2021-03-22 Rediscover the diversity of modern African literatures with this authoritative resource edited by a leader in the field How have African literatures unfolded in their rich diversity in our modern era of decolonization nationalisms and extensive transnational movement of peoples How have African writers engaged urgent questions regarding race nation ethnicity gender and sexuality And how do African literary genres interrelate with traditional oral forms or audio visual and digital media A Companion to African Literatures addresses these issues and many more Consisting of essays by distinguished scholars and emerging leaders in the field this book offers rigorous deeply engaging discussions of African literatures on the continent and in diaspora It covers the four main geographical regions East and Central Africa North Africa Southern Africa and West Africa presenting ample material to learn from and think with A Companion To African Literatures is divided into five parts The first four cover different regions of the continent while the fifth part considers conceptual issues and newer directions of inquiry Chapters focus on literatures in European languages officially used in Africa English French and Portuguese as well as homegrown African languages Afrikaans Amharic Arabic Swahili and Yoruba With its lineup of lucid and authoritative analyses readers will find in A Companion to African Literatures a distinctive rewarding academic resource Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students in literary studies programs with an African focus A Companion to African Literatures will also earn a place in the libraries of teachers researchers and professors who wish to strengthen their background in the study of African literatures The Trial of Dedan Kimathi Ngugi wa Thiong'o,Micere Githae Mugo,2013-10-11 Kenyan born novelist and playwright Ngugi wa Thiong'o and his collaborator Micere Githae Mugo have built a powerful and challenging play out of the circumstances surrounding the 1956 trial of Dedan Kimathi the celebrated Kenyan hero who led the Mau Mau rebellion against the British colonial regime in Kenya and was eventually hanged A highly controversial character Kimathi's life has been subject to intense propaganda by both the British government who saw him as a vicious terrorist and Kenyan nationalists who viewed him as a man of great courage and commitment Writing in the 1970s the playwrights response to colonialist writings about the Mau Mau movement in The Trial of Dedan Kimathi is to sing the praises of the deeds of this hero of the resistance who refused to surrender to British imperialism It is not a reproduction of the farcical trial at Nyeri Rather according to the preface it is an imaginative recreation and interpretation of the collective will of the Kenyan peasants and workers in their refusal to break under sixty years of colonial torture and ruthless oppression by the British ruling classes and their continued determination to resist exploitation oppression and new forms of enslavement Upon This Mountain Timothy Wangusa,2024-01-01 In this coming of age story Timothy Wangusa tells the tale of a young boy struggling to reconcile between his Christian beliefs and his village s ancient traditions Upon this Mountain captures a time of profound religious change and colonialism in rural Uganda Mwambu a schoolboy living in eastern Uganda is certain that if heaven is anywhere it must be at the highest peak of their village s mountain so he is shocked to discover that his father has never tried to reach it While on a quest to climb to the top Mwambu finds himself on a journey of self realisation confronted with the contradictions of his childhood As the values of Christianity collide with the traditions of his ancestors the path to adulthood becomes increasingly treacherous
