FEDERAL LAW REQUIREMENT:

All minors (under 18) traveling internationally must have a guardianship form completed if they are traveling without one or both parents.

WHO NEEDS A GUARDIANSHIP FORM?

A minor traveling with one parent: Both parents must fill out the form. The traveling parent should be designated as the child's guardian for the duration of the trip.

A minor traveling without both parents: Both parents must fill out the form and designate another adult traveler as the child's legal guardian for the duration of the trip.

A minor traveling with both parents: The guardianship form IS NOT NECESSARY.

REQUIREMENTS

- Each guardianship form must be completed and notarized.
- Both parents must be present when the form is notarized. (See FAQ's for common exceptions)
- It is illegal to make changes to the form after it has been notarized.
- The designated guardian should keep the ORIGINAL NOTARIZED guardianship form with him or her at all times while traveling.

MINOR / GUARDIANSHIP GUIDELINES

- Guardians must be with minors at all times during the trip
- If a minor has to stay at the hotel for any reason the guardian must also stay back & vice versa.

SUGGESTIONS

- Parents should designate more than one guardian for each minor.
- One person should not be designated as the only guardian for each minor in the group.
- Take care of the all guardianship forms at one time! Have a meeting with all parents of minors to fill out the forms. Invite a notary to come and notarize everyone's forms at the meeting.

Families Caring for an Aging America National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Health and Medicine Division, Board on Health Care Services, Committee on Family Caregiving for Older Adults, 2016-11-08. Family caregiving affects millions of Americans every day in all walks of life. At least 17.7 million individuals in the United States are caregivers of an older adult with a health or functional limitation. The nation's family caregivers provide the lion's share of long-term care for our older adult population. They are also central to older adults' access to and receipt of health care and community-based social services. Yet the need to recognize and support caregivers is among the least appreciated challenges facing the aging U.S. population. Families Caring for an Aging America examines the prevalence and nature of family caregiving of older adults and the available evidence on the effectiveness of programs, supports, and other interventions designed to support family caregivers. This report also assesses and recommends policies to address the needs of family caregivers and to minimize the barriers that they encounter in trying to meet the needs of older adults. The Special

How I Survived a Chinese "Reeducation" Camp Gulbahar Haitiwaji, Rozenn Morgat, 2024-06-18. The first memoir about the reeducation camps by a Uyghur woman describing the insidious nature of oppression, the dehumanizing effects of torture and brainwashing, and the human drive to survive and resist under even the most horrific circumstances. This new paperback edition features a new introduction by the author: "I have written what I lived. The atrocious reality." Gulbahar Haitiwaji to Paris Match. For three years, Gulbahar Haitiwaji was held in Chinese detention centers and reeducation camps, enduring interrogations, torture, hunger, police violence, brainwashing, forced sterilization, freezing cold, rats, and nights under the blinding fluorescent lights of her prison cell. Her only crime: being a Uyghur. China's brutal repression of Uyghurs, a Turkish-speaking Muslim ethnic group, has been denounced as genocide and reported widely in media around the world. In 2019, the New York Times published the Xinjiang Papers, leaked documents exposing the forced detention of more than one million Uyghurs in Chinese reeducation camps The Chinese government denies that these camps are concentration camps seeking to legitimize their existence in the name of the total fight against Islamic terrorism infiltration and separatism and calling them schools But none of this is true Gulbahar only escaped thanks to the relentless efforts of her daughter with the help of the French diplomatic corps Others have not been so fortunate In How I Survived a Chinese Reeducation Camp Gulbahar tells her story describing the insidious nature of oppression the dehumanizing effects of torture and brainwashing and the human drive to survive and resist under even the most horrific circumstances This new paperback edition includes a new introduction by the author
