Famulus de Episcopo is a manual which provides insight into the nuances of adjutancy and is referenced as a resource for the certification of adjutants within CECO. The contents of its pages also serve as a benchmark in basic knowledge for those who serve as adjutants, by outlining the qualifications for service as well as illustrating key concepts for successful discipleship which can be applied to the individual, local as well as national levels of ministry. The practical guidelines which exist in this work provide a structure by which a church or reformation can stand up its own adjutancy and govern them according to the tenants seen herein. Famulus de Episcopo is a manual, a reference, a benchmark and a resource for every adjutant and episcopate who wishes to further their knowledge of the adjutancy, episcopacy and the relationship between the two. Everyone who serves, and everyone who utilizes a Godly servant can readily find benefit on these pages. Reprint of the original, first published in 1881. This book is intended for the sacred garrison of anointed men and women of God assigned to protect and to serve the leadership of Body of Christ. There are many general references that offer explanations and advice on what Adjutants should do, and how to be an Adjutant; in fact the magnum opus of our craft is found in a book called God's Armorbearer,¹ by Elder Terry Nance. In historic times knights were military operatives who were appointed to the service of monarchs and other high-ranking nobles. In our time the Adjutancy serves the highest-ranking leadership of the Church. Over the course of these pages, we have attempted to convey an image of the Adjutancy that reinforces this idea of Christian kighthood.
