Don't touch anything in the Haunted Museum. Emma would rather be at her ballet class than at the Haunted Museum, but she can't miss her best friend's birthday party. In a spooky exhibit of music boxes, she's drawn to a particular one in which a pair of dancers spin slowly to a haunting melody. But that very night the music box shows up at her door like it's following her. Emma dances better than she ever imagined when the music box is playing. But that's not all. Sometimes the music speeds up and the dancers seem to move on their own. Emma finds the lid open, music playing even when she knows she'd shut it before. And then an eye appears in the mirror inside the lid; someone is watching Emma. The more Emma learns about the history of the music box, the more she realizes she needs to break the hold it has over her before it's too late. But the better she dances when the music plays, the less she wants to. Praise for The Titanic Locket: Hair-raising Weyn keeps unexpected chills coming. A quick, jittery read. Publishers Weekly. Don't touch anything in the Haunted Museum. It looks like the high point of Samantha's spring vacation is going to be a glimpse of a cute boy she sees at the Haunted Museum in England. She and her sister Jessica and their parents are taking a cruise on the Titanic 2, a replica of the original Titanic, and there's not even WiFi. At least the Titanic exhibit at the Haunted Museum had wax figures and beautiful jewels to look at. But from their first day, Samantha and Jessica notice strange things happening. Their cabin number keeps changing. There are creepy scratching sounds coming from between the walls. And a locket that Jess opened at the museum seems to be following them. Is the locket haunted? Or could it be the ship itself? Are there actors in costume walking about the ship, or could they be ghosts? Why is Sam's sister calling her by another name? Samantha will have to unravel the threads tying her and her sister to the past, or they could go down with the ship. The Sky Inside Clare B. Dunkle, 2010-12-21 Martin lives in a perfect world. Every year a new generation of genetically engineered children is shipped out to meet their parents. Every spring the residents of his town take down the snow they've stuck to their windows and put up flowers. Every morning his family gathers around their television and votes like everyone else for whatever matter of national importance the president has on the table. Today it is the color of his drapes. It's business as usual under the protective dome of suburb HM1. And it's all about to come crashing down. Because a stranger has come to take away all the little children, including Martin's sister Cassie, and no one wants to talk about where she has gone. The way Martin sees it, he has a choice. He can remain in the dubious safety of HM1 with danger lurking just beneath the surface, or he can actually break out of the suburb into the mysterious land outside, rumored to be nothing but blowing sand for miles upon miles. Acclaimed author Clare B. Dunkle has crafted a fresh and fast-paced science fiction thriller, one that challenges her characters and her readers to look closer at the world they take for granted.

But when she helps stop a robbery at a branch of The Haunted Museum the scarab she picks up doesn't seem to want to let her go. Mysterious people follow her from the United States all the way to Egypt. Scarabs appear from nowhere. Her dreams or are they visions take her far into the past and show her secrets that have long been buried in desert sands. None of it makes sense and no one seems to believe that anything out of the ordinary is happening.
