A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History Manuel De Landa, 1997 More than a simple expository history A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History sketches the outlines of a renewed materialist philosophy of history in the tradition of Fernand Braudel Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari while also engaging the critical new understanding of material processes derived from the sciences of dynamics Following in the wake of his groundbreaking War in the Age of Intelligent Machines Manuel De Landa presents a radical synthesis of historical development over the last one thousand years More than a simple expository history A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History sketches the outlines of a renewed materialist philosophy of history in the tradition of Fernand Braudel Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari while also engaging the critical new understanding of material processes derived from the sciences of dynamics Working against prevailing attitudes that see history as an arena of texts discourses ideologies and metaphors De Landa traces the concrete movements and interplays of matter and energy through human populations in the last millennium De Landa attacks three domains that have given shape to human societies economics biology and linguistics In every case what one sees is the self directed processes of matter and energy interacting with the whim and will of human history itself to form a panoramic vision of the West free of rigid teleology and naive notions of progress and even more important free of any deterministic source of its urban institutional and technological forms Rather the source of all concrete forms in the West s history are shown to derive from internal morphogenetic capabilities that lie within the flow of matter energy itself

Class Matters Charles Umney,2018 Social class remains a fundamental presence in British life in the twenty first century It is woven into the very fabric of social and political discourse undiminished by the end of mass industry unaugmented despite the ascendancy of ordinary working people and other substitute phrases Absent from this landscape however is any compelling Marxist expression or analysis of class In Class Matters Charles Umney brings Marxist analysis out of the 19th century textiles mill and into the call centres office blocks and fast food chains of modern Britain He shows how core Marxist concepts are vital to understanding increasing pay inequality decreasing job security increasing routinisation and managerial control of the labour process Providing a critical analysis of competing perspectives Umney argues that class must be understood as a dynamic and exploitative process integral to capitalism rather than a descriptive categorisation in order for us to better understand the gains capital has made at the expense of labour over the last four decades

The Natural Genesis (Two Volumes in One) Gerald Massey,2011-12-01 Egyptologist Gerald Massey challenged readers in A Book of the Beginnings to consider the argument that Egypt was the birthplace of civilization and that the widespread monotheistic vision of man and the metaphysical was in fact based on ancient Egyptian mythos In The Natural Genesis presented here in an omnibus edition Massey delivers a sequel delving deeper into his compelling polemic In Volume I he offers a more intellectual fine tuned analysis of the development of society out of Egypt From the simplest signs numbers the cross to the grandest archetypes darkness the mother figure Massey carefully and confidently lays the cultural and psychosocial bricks of evolutionism Volume II provides detailed discourse on the Egyptian origin of the delicate components of the monotheistic creed With his agile prose Massey leads an adventurous examination of the epistemology of astronomy time and Christology and what it all means for human culture British author GERALD MASSEY 1828 1907 published works of poetry spiritualism Shakespearean criticism and theology but his best known works are in the realm of Egyptology including The Book of the Beginnings The Natural Genesis and Ancient Egypt The Light of the World

Fire and Climatic Change in Temperate Ecosystems of the Western Americas Thomas T. Veblen,William L. Baker,Gloria Montenegro,Thomas W. Swetnam,2006-05-10 Both fire and climatic variability have monumental impacts on the dynamics of temperate ecosystems These impacts can sometimes be extreme or devastating as seen in recent El Nino La Nina cycles and in uncontrolled fire occurrences This volume brings together research conducted in western North and South America areas of a great deal of collaborative work on the influence of people and climate change on fire regimes In order to give perspective to patterns of change over time it emphasizes the integration of paleoecological studies with studies of modern ecosystems Data from a range of spatial scales from individual plants to communities and ecosystems to landscape and regional levels are included Contributions come from fire ecology paleoecology biogeography paleoclimatology landscape and ecosystem ecology ecological modeling forest management plant community ecology and plant morphology The book gives a synthetic overview of methods data and simulation models for evaluating fire regime processes in forests shrublands and woodlands and assembles case studies of fire climate and land use histories The unique approach of this book gives researchers the benefits of a north south comparison as well as the integration of paleoecological histories current ecosystem dynamics and modeling of future changes
