pioneering theory of andragogy which transformed education theory in the 1970s The resulting principles of a self directed experiential problem centred approach to learning have been hugely influential and are still the basis of the learning practices we use today Understanding these principles is the cornerstone of increasing motivation and enabling adult learners to achieve The 9th edition of The Adult Learner has been revised to include Updates to the book to reflect the very latest advancements in the field The addition of two new chapters on diversity and inclusion in adult learning and andragogy and the online adult learner An updated supporting website This website for the 9th edition of The Adult Learner will provide basic instructor aids including a PowerPoint presentation for each chapter Revisions throughout to make it more readable and relevant to your practices If you are a researcher practitioner or student in education an adult learning practitioner training manager or involved in human resource development this is the definitive book in adult learning you should not be without

Crime, Shame and Reintegration John Braithwaite,1989-03-23 Crime Shame and Reintegration is a contribution to general criminological theory Its approach is as relevant to professional burglary as to episodic delinquency or white collar crime Braithwaite argues that some societies have higher crime rates than others because of their different processes of shaming wrongdoing Shaming can be counterproductive making crime problems worse But when shaming is done within a cultural context of respect for the offender it can be an extraordinarily powerful efficient and just form of social control Braithwaite identifies the social conditions for such successful shaming If his theory is right radically different criminal justice policies are needed a shift away from punitive social control toward greater emphasis on moralizing social control This book will be of interest not only to criminologists and sociologists but to those in law public administration and politics who are concerned with social policy and social issues
