The House of Early Sorrows Louise A. DeSalvo,2018 As the child of children of immigrants Louise DeSalvo was at first reluctant to write about her truths Her abusive father her sister s suicide her illness In this stunning collection of her captivating and frank essays on her life and her Italian American culture Louise DeSalvo centers on her beginnings reframing and revising her acclaimed memoiristic essays pieces that were the seeds of longer collections to reveal her true power as a memoirist the ability to dig ever deeper for personal and political truths that illuminate what it means to be a woman a child of Italian immigrants a writer and a scholar Map Is Only One Story,2020 City of Rivers Zubair Ahmed,2012 Original poems from an author who is shaped by both Bangladeshi and American culture On Moving Louise DeSalvo,2009-07-01 When acclaimed memoirist and scholar Louise DeSalvo sold the house she and her husband had raised their children in and moved to a beautiful new home in Montclair New Jersey she was shocked to discover a rash of unexpected emotions interfering with her plans Suddenly the old cramped house was paradise and the new house a barren building with none of the comforts or familiarity of home Faced with a sudden disillusionment over her dream house DeSalvo turned as she always has to her favorite writers What she found was a treasure trove of material most of which has seldom been written about before chronicling the tumultuous and inspiring moves of some of our most beloved literary figures Percy Shelley destitute and restless moved his tired family from one home to another only to settle in what he came to believe was a haunted house on the Gulf of Spezia in which he soon drowned Virginia Woolf on her hunt for the perfect room of her own was a real estate hound and spent years trying to get back to her home in London after a nervous breakdown forced her to relocate to the country More recently Mark Doty found selling the house he and his dying lover spent decades renovating surprisingly freeing as the couple found a new home in which to say goodbye DeSalvo mines the hopes disappointments memories and fears that come with that simple yet fundamental part of everyone s lives moving Epistolophilia Julija Sukys,2012-03-01 The librarian walks the streets of her beloved Paris An old lady with a limp and an accent she is invisible to most Certainly no one recognizes her as the warrior and revolutionary she was when again and again she slipped into the Jewish ghetto of German occupied Vilnius to carry food clothes medicine money and counterfeit documents to its prisoners Often she left with letters to deliver manuscripts to hide and even sedated children swathed in sacks In 1944 she was captured by the Gestapo tortured for twelve days and deported to Dachau Through Epistolophilia Julija ukys follows the letters and journals the life writing of this woman Ona imait 1894 1970 A treasurer of words imait carefully collected preserved and archived the written record of her life including thousands of letters scores of diaries articles and press clippings Journeying through these words ukys negotiates with the ghost of imait beckoning back to life this quiet and worldly heroine a giant of Holocaust history one of Yad Vashem s honored Righteous Among the Nations and yet so little known The result is at once a mediated self portrait and a measured perspective on a remarkable life It reveals the meaning of life writing how women write their lives publicly and privately and how their words attach them and us to life The Milk of Almonds Edvige Giunta, Louise

DeSalvo, 2017-03-15 A vast thoroughly wonderful assortment of poetry memoirs and stories that defines today s female Italian American experience Publishers Weekly Often stereotyped as nurturing others through food Italian American women have often struggled against this simplistic image to express the realities of their lives In this unique collection over 50 Italian American female writers speak in voices that are loud boisterous sweet savvy and often subversively funny Drawing on personal and cultural memories rooted in experiences of food they dissolve conventional images replacing them with a sumptuous communal feast of poetry stories and memoir This collection also delves into unexpected sometimes shocking terrain as these courageous authors bear witness to aspects of the Italian American experience that normally go unspoken mental illness family violence incest drug addiction AIDS and environmental degradation As provocative as it is appetizing this collection of verse and prose pieces reveals the evocative and provocative power of food as event and as symbol as well as the diversity of these women s lives and their ambivalence regarding the role of nurturer Library Journal Crazy in the Kitchen Louise DeSalvo, 2008-12-01 During Louise DeSalvo s childhood in 1950s New Jersey the kitchen becomes the site for fierce generational battle Louise s step grandmother insists on recreating the domestic habits of her Southern Italian peasant upbringing clashing with Louise s convenience food loving mother Louise meanwhile dreams of cooking perfect fresh pasta in her own kitchen But as Louise grows up to indulge in amazing food and travels to Italy herself she arrives at a fuller and more compassionate picture of her own roots And in the process she reveals that our image of the bounteous Italian American kitchen may exist in part to mask a sometimes painful history Louise DeSalvo is a writer professor lecturer and scholar who lives in New Jersey Her many books include the memoirs Vertigo Breathless and Adultery the acclaimed biography Virginia Woolf The Impact of Childhood Sexual Abuse on her Life and Work and Writing as a Way of Healing Recently she edited Woolf s early novel Melymbrosia and coedited The Milk of Almonds Italian American Women Writers on Food and Culture A Book Sense 76 pick in hardcover Louise DeSalvo packs about six courses of emotional wallop into her slim memoir A tough courageous story one of hard won wisdom and memory San Francisco Chronicle Illuminate s the
