Signal, 2014 Perform or Else Jon McKenzie, 2002-09-26 Performance has become one of the key terms for the new century But what do we mean by performance In today's world it can refer to experimental art productivity in the workplace and the functionality of technological systems Do these disparate fields bear any relation to each other In Perform or Else Jon McKenzie asserts that there is a relationship cultural organisational and technological performance In this theoretical tour de force McKenzie demonstrates that all three paradigms operate together to create powerful and contradictory pressures to perform or else This is an urgent and important intervention in contemporary critical thinking It will profoundly shape our understanding of twenty first century structures of power and knowledge

The future of dialects Marie-Hélène Côté, Remco Knooihuizen, John Nerbonne, 2016-02-05 Traditional dialects have been encroached upon by the increasing mobility of their speakers and by the onslaught of national languages in education and mass media Typically older dialects are leveling to become more like national languages This is regrettable when the last articulate traces of a culture are lost but it also promotes a complex dynamics of interaction as speakers shift from dialect to standard and to intermediate compromises between the two in their forms of speech Varieties of speech thus live on in modern communities where they still function to mark provenance but increasingly cultural and social provenance as opposed to pure geography They arise at times from the need to function throughout the different groups in society but they also may have roots in immigrants speech and just as certainly from the ineluctable dynamics of groups wishing to express their identity to themselves and to the world The future of dialects is a selection of the papers presented at Methods in Dialectology XV held in Groningen the Netherlands 11 15 August 2014 While the focus is on methodology the volume also includes specialized studies on varieties of Catalan Breton Croatian Belgian Dutch English in the US the UK and in Japan German including Swiss German Italian including Tyrolean Italian Japanese and Spanish as well as on heritage languages in Canada Firms within Families Jennifer E.

Infrahumanisms Megan H. Glick, 2018-10-18 In Infrahumanisms Megan H Glick considers how conversations surrounding nonhuman life have impacted a broad range of attitudes toward forms of human difference such as race sexuality and health She examines the history of human and nonhuman subjectivity as told through twentieth century scientific and cultural discourses that include pediatrics primatology eugenics exobiology and obesity research Outlining how the category of the human is continuously redefined in relation to the infrahuman a liminal position of speciation existing between the human and the nonhuman Glick reads a number of phenomena from early twentieth century efforts to define children and higher order primates as liminally human and the postwar cultural fascination with extraterrestrial life to anxieties over AIDS SARS and other cross species diseases In these cases the efforts to define a universal humanity create the means with which to reinforce notions of human difference and maintain human nonhuman hierarchies In foregrounding how evolving definitions of the human reflect shifting attitudes about social inequality Glick shows how the consideration of nonhuman subjectivities demands a rethinking of long held truths about biological meaning and difference
