Economic Development: Tenth Edition Michael P. Todaro, Stephen C. Smith,

The Process of Economic Development James M. Cypher, 2020-12-30 The fifth edition of The Process of Economic Development offers a thorough and up to date treatment of development economics It has been extensively revised throughout reflecting the most recent developments in research and incorporating the latest empirical data as well as key theoretical advances and many new topics The world has seen vast economic growth in China economic transformation in India new challenges in Latin America rapid economic progress in Southeast Asia and the deepening impact of environmental issues such as climate change This new edition addresses all these critical issues as well as the pivotal role of the state where China's capacity is contrasted with that of African states Transnational corporations reliance on low wage manufacturing and labor arbitrage is featured in the book Agricultural policy extensively explored remains crucial as does the promotion of industrialization This fifth edition offers a state of the art analysis of these essential themes and many others Numerous case studies and issue focuses have been integrated with sundry central topics Neoclassical theories and applications including a timely exploration of behavioral economics are both rigorously and accessibly explicated Cypher's comprehensive account remains the development economics text par excellence as it takes a much more practical hands on view of the issues facing the developing countries than other overly mathematical texts This book is unique in its scope and in the detailed attention it gives to a vast range of ideas including pioneering developmentalist and heterodox formulations Distinct institutional structures are examined within their historical contexts This landmark text will continue to be an invaluable resource for students teachers and researchers in the fields of development economics and development studies

Africa-EU Relations and the African Continental Free Trade Area Leon Mwamba Tshipaka, 2024 This book examines the establishment and implementation of the AfCFTA which is the largest free trade area globally covering 54 African countries It explores how this initiative has the potential to reshape Africa EU relations by promoting intra African trade economic integration and diversification as well as inter regional trade Both continents have potential to serve as global actors in reshaping the global order in ways that can affect how multilateralism foster inclusive development However whether this will happen would be a function of how the EU and AU define their interests and relationship Leon Mwamba Tshipaka is Senior Postdoctoral Research Fellow in the Centre for the Study of Governance Innovation GovInn and the SARChI Research Chair in the Political Economy of Migration in the SADC Region in the Department of Political Sciences of the University of Pretoria South Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba is Assistant Professor at the Institute of African Studies Carleton University Ottawa Ontario Canada and Honorary Professor at the Thabo Mbeki African School of Public and International Affairs University of South Africa where he was previously an Associate Professor

Economics and Development Studies Michael Tribe, Frederick Nixon, Andy Sumner, 2010-09-13 Development studies textbooks and courses have sometimes tended to avoid significant economic content However without an understanding of the economic aspects of international development many of the more complex issues cannot be fully comprehended Economics and Development Studies makes the economic dimension of discourse around controversial issues in international development accessible to second and third year undergraduate students working towards degrees in development studies Following an introductory chapter outlining the connections between development economics and development studies this book consists of eight substantive chapters dealing with the nature of development economics economic growth and structural change economic growth and developing countries economic growth and economic development since 1960 the global economy and the Third World developing countries and international trade economics and development policy and poverty equality and development economists with a tenth concluding chapter This book synthesizes existing development economics literature in order to identify the salient issues and controversies and make them accessible and understandable The concern is to distinguish differences within the economics profession and between economists and non economists so that the reader can make informed judgments about the sources of these differences and about their impact on policy analysis and policy advice The book features explanatory text boxes tables and diagrams suggestions for further reading and a listing of the economic concepts used in the chapters
