Frameworks for Modern Art Jason Gaiger, 2003-01-01 This generously illustrated volume the first in the Art of the Twentieth Century series introduces and explores a range of contemporary issues and debates about art and its place in the wider culture today The opening chapter discusses key concepts such as modernity modernism autonomy spectatorship and globalization Four case studies follow each devoted to a specific work of art across the span of the century Marcel Duchamp's Bottlerack Barnett Newman's Eve Ana Mendieta's Siluetas series and Yarla by the Australian Aboriginal Yuendumu community These works have been selected not only for their intrinsic interest but also for the way in which they open up wider questions of meaning and interpretation that are central to understanding twentieth century art

Impassioned Jurisprudence Nancy E. Johnson, 2015-06-05 In this volume of essays scholars of the interdisciplinary field of law and literature write about the role of emotion in English law and legal theory in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The law's claims to reason provided a growing citizenry that was beginning to establish its rights with an assurance of fairness and equity Yet an investigation of the rational discourse of the law reveals at its core the processes of emotion and a study of literature that engages with the law exposes the potency of emotion in the practice and understanding of the law Examining both legal and literary texts the authors in this collection consider the emotion that infuses the law and find that feeling sentiment and passion are integral to juridical thought as well as to specific legislation
