A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross, 2007 Southeast Asia continues to beckon policymakers and scholars alike to revisit its history in spite of the tomes of appraisals already written deconstructive or otherwise Because of a significant presence of Muslims in the region and particularly in the wake of 9/11 it invariably attracts the attention of foreign powers drawn by the specter of terrorism and focused on rooting out radical Islamist groups said to be working with al Qaeda Dr Max Gross has written an impressive account of the role of Islam in the politics of Southeast Asia anchored by a strong historical perspective and a comprehensive treatment of current affairs The result is very much a post 9/11 book The origins of Jemaah Islamiyah and its connections with al Qaeda are carefully detailed Yet unlike much of the post 9/11 analysis of the Muslim world Dr Gross's research has been successful in placing the phenomenon of terrorism within a larger perspective While recognizing that al Qaeda's influence on regional terror networks remains unclear it behooves us to be reminded that regardless of the nature and extent of the linkages to dismiss terrorism as a serious threat to security would be naive to the point of recklessness The Muslim Archipelago is a profoundly Islamic region and Jemaah Islamiyah is only a small portion of this reality The attention Dr Gross pays to ABIM in Malaysia of which I was a part and the civil Islam movement in Indonesia of which the late Nurcholish Madjid was a principal spokesman is greatly appreciated Those unfamiliar with the background and role of the traditional Islamic PAS party in Malaysia as well as the Darul Islam movement in Indonesia will find the author's account highly beneficial The MNLF the MILF and Abu Sayyaf in the Philippines as well as the various Islamic movements in southern Thailand are also carefully explained Metal Construction, 1984 Evidence-Based Orthodontics Greg J. Huang, Stephen Richmond, Katherine W. L.
