The Official Vintage Guitar Magazine Price Guide 2004 Alan Greenwood, Gil Hembree, 2003-10
Industry experts have long considered The Official Vintage Guitar Price Guide to be the most accurate, authoritative, and detailed publication to tackle the seemingly indomitable task of placing values on thousands of vintage and recent model guitars, amps, basses, effects, pedals, mandolins, lapsteels, and other fretted instruments. And the VG Price Guide is the only one to do it all in one book. Now in its 13th year, the new Guide offers more than ever. Authors Alan Greenwood and Gil Hembree have made their ultimate guide to values even more valuable with more details on familiar favorites and backgrounds on nearly 800 brands. Plus, there are 700 photos showing all forms of vintage instruments, amps, and effects. The Guide combines the most thorough research with an exceptionally user-friendly format that employs quick-find page headings, a comprehensive index, and a dealer directory that puts you just an e-mail or phone call away from guitar buyers and sellers in every region of the country. Also included is an in-depth look at the factors that drive the collectible instrument market, explaining the hows and whys in regard to the values of vintage and used equipment.

In His Own Image and Likeness W. Randall Garr, 2003-01-01
This book argues that within the Priestly tradition, human creation marks the replacement of God's divine community, signifying the moment when God takes control over that community, separates himself, and institutes monotheism.

Aspiration Agnes Callard, 2018-03-01
Becoming someone is a learning process and what we learn is the new values around which if we succeed our lives will come to turn Agents transform themselves in the process of for example becoming parents embarking on careers or acquiring a passion for music or politics How can such activity be rational if the reason for engaging in the relevant pursuit is only available to the person one will become How is it psychologically possible to feel the attraction of a form of concern that is not yet one's own How can the work done to arrive at the finish line be ascribed to one who doesn't really know what one is doing or why one is doing it In Aspiration Agnes Callard asserts that these questions belong to the theory of aspiration Aspirants are motivated by proleptic reasons acknowledged defective versions of the reasons they expect to eventually grasp The psychology of such a transformation is marked by intrinsic conflict between their old point of view on value and the one they are trying to acquire They cannot adjudicate this conflict by deliberating or choosing or deciding rather they resolve it by working to see the world in a new way This work has a teleological structure by modeling oneself on the person he or she is trying to be the aspirant brings that person into being Because it is open to us to engage in an activity of self creation we are responsible for having become the kinds of people we are

The Voynich Manuscript M. E.
