Ridgetop Jun 20 2024 On the eve of a country music festival, three people meet in the West Virginia mountains: Angela, a singer with a wounded voice; B.L., a delusional ex-con on a dangerous quest to prove himself; and Rudy, who's chasing an old dream. If Angela sings-even speaks-she could ruin her voice for good, but she faces another threat: falling hard for Rudy, her first love, the man she abandoned to follow her career. Over the next few days the three will meet again in Winkler, the small town where the Ridgetop festival takes place. All three will be forever changed. All three will run for their lives.

Dell Zero May 19 2024 In the Chapter society, transforming drugs let humans live forever. But now a rare creature appears, a young woman calling herself Dell. Her presence confuses the ancients: she has the power of speech and intelligence, but no identifying number. Some believe Dell is a newborn, one of the species that breed in the wild. Powerful members of the society disagree whether they should destroy or use her. Though Vita-meds keep the society at peace, constantly restored to youth and vigor, no one loves or cares. But while ancients conspire or languish on drugs, Dell finds others like herself. Together they will change everything.
