culture that he never thought he would embrace His experience will erase the one last hatred that he will let go This is a journey from prejudice to understanding It is a story of ignorance to discovery It is a book about cultural differences and finding that common ground It is a path of hate to one of love But more than anything it is about change It is about change of mindset change of heart change in your relationship with people and with God It is that significant emotional event that rocks your soul and takes you to a place you have never been before Nine Days In Moscow will tug on every emotion that you have
