Joining a Nonprofit Board Marc J. Epstein, F. Warren McFarlan, 2011-03-23 Praise for Joining a Nonprofit Board As an individual who has served on various nonprofit boards and as the president and CEO of a large nonprofit organization I can attest to how valuable this book is. Marc Epstein and Warren McFarlan offer insight into the expectations of nonprofit board members which is extraordinarily beneficial to individuals considering their first nonprofit board and to seasoned professionals already serving on boards. Gail McGovern, President and CEO American Red Cross Excerpted from Foreword This book is a roadmap for the business person who wants to serve on a nonprofit board and unwittingly assumes that the approaches that worked so well in the for profit world can be seamlessly extrapolated to the nonprofit board room. Roseanna H Means, M.D. founder and president Women of Means A must read for all new and existing nonprofit board members. It is full of practical advice that will help improve the effectiveness of nonprofit board members and the organizations they serve. Roger Servison, president emeritus Boston Museum of Fine Arts and vice chairman Boston Symphony Orchestra What a powerful tool now available for anyone involved with governance of America's nonprofit enterprises. The analysis is cogent and concise amply supported by real life examples. George B Beitzel, chairman emeritus Amherst College and chairman emeritus Colonial Williamsburg Foundation Joining a Nonprofit Board offers practical advice in complementing your business experience with the nuances of nonprofit governance, performance and management in order to fully achieve the societal mission. Jeffrey C Thomson, president and CEO Institute of Management Accountants This book will guide you through the differences between for profit and nonprofit organizations and boards. It will help you navigate through all the nuances in which nonprofit organizations actually operate on a day to day basis. Elaine Ullian, former president Boston Medical Center Joining a Nonprofit Board is a must read. This book should be required reading and distributed at the opening board meeting. Agnes C Underwood, former head Garrison Forest School and National Cathedral School vice president managing associate Carney Sandoe and Associates A Board needs a unifying and visionary objective. It must be World Class. This book successfully shows how to create a World Class Board. W. Richard Bingham, former chairman California Academy of Sciences

Great Boards for Small Groups Andy Robinson, 2006 Yours is a good board but you want it to be better You want clearly defined objectives Meetings with more focus Broader participation in fundraising And more follow through between meetings You want these and a dozen other tangibles and intangibles that will propel your board from good to great Say hello to your guide Andy Robinson who has a real knack for offering forehead slapping solutions Of course Why haven t we been doing this Take what he says about written agreements among board members Any meaningful job description must be reciprocal it defines what is expected of you but also what you can expect in return Example I accept fiduciary responsibility for the organization and will oversee its financial health and integrity By the same token I expect timely accurate and complete financial statements to be distributed at least quarterly one week in advance of the relevant board meeting In other words the board knows what to expect the staff knows what to do Each is accountable Simple right So why does the 10 item sample agreement Robinson provides seem so revolutionary Perhaps because so few people have tried an agreement like this Then there s what the author calls the Fundraising Menu Here board members are asked to generate a list of all the ways direct and indirect they could assist in fundraising The list is prioritized and then used to help each trustee prepare a personalized fundraising agreement that meets his or her specific needs interests and limitations Again simple but it s the closest thing you ll find to guaranteeing a board s commitment to raising money Toward the end of his book in a number of How to Fix It chapters Robinson homes in on specific problems such as poorly attended meetings spotty follow through on commitments inactive board members narrow consensus conflicts of interest weak agendas and much more And Robinson doesn t offer up easy nostrums Quite the opposite Over the past 20 years as a board member a volunteer and a consultant he s put into practice what he preaches and stands unshakably behind his fog burning advice Great Boards for Small Groups contains 31 brief chapters In fact the whole book can be read in an hour Funny thing though its impact on those who heed its advice will last for years

How are We Doing? Gayle L. Gifford,2005 Ah simplicity That s not a word usually voiced in the same breath as board evaluation Or conciseness and clarity and cogency Yet all four aptly describe Gayle Gifford s book How Are We Doing A 1 Hour Guide to Evaluating Your Performance as a Nonprofit Board Until now almost all books dealing with board evaluation have had an air of unreality about them The perplexing graphs the matrix boxes the overlong questionnaires It took only a thumbing through to render a judgment My board s going to use this Get real Enter Gayle Gifford Inhale the fresh air See the ground break Watch the clutter clear Gifford has pioneered an elegantly simple and enjoyable yes enjoyable way for nonprofit boards to evaluate and improve its overall performance It all comes down to answering a host of straightforward questions questions that as Graham Greene would say get to the heart of the matter Here is a sampling Have we set a goal for the good we want to do How well do we know our community s needs Do we know if our programs are having an impact Do we ask the right financial questions Do we govern and resist the temptation to manage Do we recruit the board members we need Have we decided the board s role in fundraising It doesn t matter whether the setting is formal as in a special board meeting or casual the chairperson s living room It doesn t matter whether you have 75 board members or seven It doesn t matter whether yours is an established institution or a grassroots start up All that matters is that the questions are answered candidly and the responses discussed It doesn t get any easier than that It s all so refreshing the thought of an invigorating discussion taking place without pretense or pedantry during which board members reflect on their job gain a fuller understanding of their organization explore their strengths and shortcomings grow more cohesive sense new potential and come away genuinely energized by the process and far better equipped to govern Gifford has done nothing less than transform the way boards will evaluate themselves from this day forward Oh the simplicity of it all

The Art of Trusteeship Candace Widmer, Susan Houchin, 2000-11-03 The well being of any nonprofit organization rests first with its volunteer board of directors This book offers board members the guidance they need to successfully govern their organizations no matter what type or size of nonprofit they may lead Written by Candace Widmer and Susan Houchin The Art of Trusteeship shows you how to fulfill ten key trustee responsibilities and includes much needed detail on defining mission strategic planning executive selection and evaluation fundraising financial oversight and board self assessment This hands on guide is filled with illustrative case studies and real life examples that clearly show how a variety of creative boards have tackled challenges and strengthened their organizations At last a book that doesn't take a one size fits all approach The authors recognize that the huge diversity among nonprofits calls for multiple ways of fulfilling basic board responsibilities The book allows a board member to dive in at any point and find a concise clear set of options for handling the challenges of trusteeship It will help even first time board members find firm footing on the path to effective governance Sara L Engelhardt president The Foundation Center
