

A photograph of a yellow-billed cuckoo bird in flight, centered on the cover. The bird is shown from a side profile, flying towards the left. Its wings are spread, and its long tail is visible. The background consists of a blurred, natural landscape of granite islands and water, with warm, golden light suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall tone is serene and naturalistic.

Vacationland Sarah Stonich,2013-03-25 On a lake in northernmost Minnesota you might find Naledi Lodge only two cabins still standing its pathways now trodden mostly by memories And there you might meet Meg or the ghost of the girl she was growing up under her grandfather s care in a world apart and a lifetime ago Now an artist Meg paints images reflected across the mirrors of memory and water much as the linked stories of Vacationland cast shimmering spells across distance and time Those whose paths have crossed at Naledi inhabit Vacationland a man from nearby Hatchet Inlet who knew Meg back when a Sarajevo refugee sponsored by two parishes who can t afford their own refugee aged sisters traveling to fulfill a fateful pact once made at the resort a philandering ad man a lonely Ojibwe stonemason and a haiku spouting girl rescued from a bog Sarah Stonich whose work has been described as unexpected and moving by the Chicago Tribune and a well paced feast by the Los Angeles Times weaves these tales of love and loss heartbreak and redemption into a rich novel of interconnected and disjointed lives Vacationland is a moving portrait of a place at once timeless and of the moment composed of conflicting dreams and shared experience and of the woman bound to it by legacy and sometimes longing but not necessarily by choice
