

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions below it.

Quiet and the night came early and Leonard sat there feeling a flicker of restlessness. He needed his books, a radio perhaps, he wasn't sure why he had been delaying going into Kingston to fetch his things. The pattern he had established of working on the house had completely absorbed him, but, he thought, stretching lazily, it was time to make the trip into town. He would go there the next day, get it over with. If he went like that, mid-week, there would be nobody there. He could simply pick up his two boxes and leave the key with the next-door neighbour. He would not have to face his parents and their angry comments, the small guilt-making jabs, 'after all they had done', giving up his job, 'such good prospects', to hide himself away 'in the depths of beyond', as they put it. And, of course, he could not explain. He could not say that the prospect of working to buy things did not interest him, of drifting into a marriage, much like theirs, did not interest him. It was all sound, solid, and it frightened him, the years stretching ahead, known even before they had happened. He wanted to make something very simple, very different, for himself. He could not explain because they were so proud of having lived out Grandma Miriam's dream, to be educated, professionals, a far remove from Grandpa Sam, travelling in on the country bus with his country talk and his bag of yams.

- a) Why was Leonard feeling a flicker of restlessness (line 2)? (2 marks)

- c) How did Leonard decide to avoid his parents? (2 marks)
- d) How did Leonard's parents feel about his chosen lifestyle? (2 marks)
- e) What was Grandma Miriam's ambition for her children? (1 mark)

4. Read the following poem carefully and then answer the questions set on it.

The Hawk

The hawk slipped out of the pine, and rose in the sunset air:
Steady and still he poised: his shadow slept on the grass:
And the bird's song sickened and sank: she cowered with furtive stare,
Dumb, till the quivering dimness should flicker and shift and pass.
Suddenly down he dropped: she heard the hiss of his wing,
Fled with a scream of terror: oh, would she had dared to rest.
For the hawk: at eve was full, and there was no bird to sing,
And over the heather drifted the down from a bleeding breast.

A.C. BENSON
