Lunar Park Bret Easton Ellis, 2005-08-16 NATIONAL BESTSELLER From the New York Times bestselling author of American Psycho and Less Than Zero comes a chilling tale that combines reality memoir and fantasy to create a fascinating portrait of this most controversial writer but also a deeply moving novel about love and loss parents and children and ultimately forgiveness John Cheever writes The Shining Stephen King Entertainment Weekly Bret Ellis the narrator of Lunar Park is the bestselling writer whose first novel Less Than Zero catapulted him to international stardom while he was still in college In the years that followed he found himself adrift in a world of wealth, drugs, and fame as well as dealing with the unexpected death of his abusive father. After a decade of decadence, a chance for salvation arrives: the chance to reconnect with an actress he was once involved with and their son. But almost immediately, his new life is threatened by a freak sequence of events and a bizarre series of murders that all seem to connect to Ellis's past. His attempts to save his new world from his own demons makes Lunar Park Ellis's most suspenseful novel. Look for Bret Easton Ellis's new novel The Shards.

Uncomfortable Brett McCracken, 2017-09-15 Does your church make you uncomfortable? It's easy to dream about the perfect church: a church that sings just the right songs, set to just the right music; before the pastor preaches just the right sermon to a room filled with just the right mix of people who happen to agree with you on just about everything. Chances are, your church doesn't quite look like that. But what if, instead of searching for a church that makes us comfortable, we learned to love our church even when it's challenging? What if some of the discomfort that we often experience is actually good for us? This book is a call to embrace the uncomfortable aspects of Christian community, whether that means believing difficult truths, pursuing difficult holiness, or loving difficult people, all for the sake of the gospel, God's glory, and our joy.

A Mind to Murder P.D. James, 2001-06-05 Adam Dalgluish is called to the elegant Steen Psychiatric Clinic to investigate why the head of the clinic, Enid Bolan, was found with a chisel through her heart.

Bumping the Dock: A Story of God's Grace and an 18-Wheeler Annette F. Wilcox, 2020-01-11 I am an unlikely person to be a long-haul trucker. People comment that I look more like a librarian or an English teacher than a trucker. And I have been both. Trucking is physically a little too hard for me. Perhaps for this reason, my life as a trucker has been one of radical dependence on God. The truck runs after all by grace, and I'm on the road only as long as God wants me to be. I have truly experienced that God's mercies are new every morning and are inexhaustible. He always helps. That's what this story is about.

A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes, 1978 Barthes's most popular and unusual performance as a writer is A Lover's Discourse, a writing out of the discourse of love. This language, primarily the complaints and reflections of the lover when alone, not exchanges of a lover with his or her partner, is unfashionable. Thought it is spoken by millions of people, diffused in our popular romances and television programs as well as in serious literature, there is no institution that explores, maintains, modifies, judges, repeats, and otherwise assumes responsibility for this discourse. Writing out the figures of a neglected discourse, Barthes surprises us in A Lover's Discourse by making love in its most absurd and sentimental forms an object of interest.

Hendrik Petrus Berlage Hendrik Petrus Berlage, 1996-01-01 Hendrik Petrus Berlage, the Dutch architect and architectural philosopher, created a series of buildings and a body of writings from 1886 to 1909 that were among the first efforts to probe the problems and possibilities of modernism. Although his Amsterdam Stock Exchange, with its rational mastery of materials and space, has long been celebrated for its seminal influence on the architecture of the 20th century, Berlage's writings are highlighted here. Bringing together Berlage's most important texts among them Thoughts on Style in Architecture, Architecture's Place in Modern Aesthetics, and Art and Society, this volume presents a chapter in the history of European modernism In his introduction Iain Boyd Whyte demonstrates that the substantial contribution of Berlage's designs to modern architecture cannot be fully appreciated without an understanding of the aesthetic principles first laid out in his writings Adopted for Life Russell Moore, 2015 In this practical book Moore highlights the importance of adoption for all Christians encouraging readers to lead the way in adoption and orphan advocacy out of our identity as adopted children of God 12 "Christian" Beliefs that Can Drive You Crazy Henry Cloud, John Townsend, 1995 Not everything believed as biblical truth is truly biblical The co-directors of the Minirth Meier New Life Clinics West debunk 12 commonly accepted beliefs that cause bondage rather than liberty They explain how nuggets of truth become cornerstones for error when wrongly understood and they help build solid scriptural foundations that produce emotional freedom Cells Are the New Cure Robin L.
