"How do you think like a manager?" It is one of the most common questions asked when preparing for the CISSP exam. Using 25 CISSP practice questions with detailed explanations, this book will attempt to answer how to think like a member of a senior management team who has the goal of balancing risk, cost, and most of all, human life. The questions will take you through how to resist thinking from a technical perspective to one that is more holistic of the entire organization. Like all of Study Notes and Theory's CISSP practice questions, these questions correlate multiple high-level security concepts and require thinking like a manager. Extracting the most value comes from understanding not only which choice is correct, but more importantly, why the other choices are wrong. You can simply rely on these questions for successfully certifying this exam For CFCM, FAR is definitely the focus. Still, knowledge on commercial acquisition and contract is essential as it forms the foundation of modern contract management. You should therefore go through the sections on business procurement and commercial contracting in addition to studying FAR. In this study product we have both contracting-specific and FAR knowledge sections. You want to know that the CFCM exam has been updated to cover FAR changes of FACs 05-46 through 05-57. A special section is accordingly made available in this book to provide information on the more important changes that are deemed relevant for the exam. GB knowledge topics are no longer covered in this book. Practice Questions and Answers are available at the end of the book. If you purchase this book you do not need to purchase our CFCM Self Practice Questions module separately.
