Beating Back the Devil Maryn McKenna, 2008-06-17 The universal human instinct is to run from an outbreak of disease like Ebola These doctors run toward it Their job is to stop epidemics from happening They are the disease detective corps of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC the federal agency that tracks and tries to prevent disease outbreaks and bioterrorist attacks around the world They are formally called the Epidemic Intelligence Service EIS a group founded more than fifty years ago out of fear that the Korean War might bring the use of biological weapons and like intelligence operatives in the traditional sense they perform their work largely in anonymity They are not household names but over the years they were first to confront the outbreaks that became known as hantavirus Ebola and AIDS Every day they work to protect us by hunting down the deadly threats that we forget until they dominate our headlines West Nile virus anthrax and SARS among others In this riveting narrative Maryn McKenna the only journalist ever given full access to the EIS in its fifty three year history follows the first class of disease detectives to come to the CDC after September 11 the first to confront not just naturally occurring outbreaks but the man made threat of bioterrorism They are talented researchers many with young families who trade two years of low pay and extremely long hours for the chance to be part of the group that are on the frontlines in the yellow suits and masks that has helped eradicate smallpox push back polio and solve the first major outbreaks of Legionnaires disease toxic shock syndrome and E coli O157 and works to battle every new disease before it becomes an epidemic Urgent exhilarating and compelling Beating Back the Devil takes you inside the world of these medical detectives who are trying to stop the next epidemic before the epidemics stop us Beating Back the Devil Maryn McKenna, 2014-05-09 IN THE WAR AGAINST DISEASES THEY ARE THE SPECIAL FORCES They always keep a bag packed They seldom have more than twenty four hours notice before they are dispatched The phone calls that tell them to head to the airport sometimes in the middle of the night may give them no more information than the country they are traveling to and the epidemic they will tackle when they get there The universal human instinct is to run from an outbreak of disease These doctors run toward it They are the disease detective corps of the U S Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC the federal agency that tracks and tries to prevent disease outbreaks and bioterrorist attacks around the world They are formally called the Epidemic Intelligence Service EIS a group founded more than fifty years ago out of fear that the Korean War might bring the use of biological weapons and like intelligence operatives in the traditional sense they perform their work largely in anonymity They are not household names but over the years they were first to confront the outbreaks that became known as hantavirus Ebola virus and AIDS Now they hunt down the deadly threats that dominate our headlines West

Nile virus anthrax and SARS In this riveting narrative Maryn McKenna the only journalist ever given full access to the EIS in its fifty three year history follows the first class of disease detectives to come to the CDC after September 11 the first to confront not just naturally occurring outbreaks but the man made threat of bioterrorism They are talented researchers many with young families who trade two years of low pay and extremely long hours for the chance to be part of the group that has helped eradicate smallpox push back polio and solve the first major outbreaks of Legionnaires disease toxic shock syndrome and E coli O157 Urgent exhilarating and compelling Beating Back the Devil goes with the EIS as they try to stop epidemics before the epidemics stop us Beating Back the Devil Maryn McKenna,2008-07-28 The universal human instinct is to run from an outbreak of disease like Ebola These doctors run toward it Their job is to stop epidemics from happening They are the disease detective corps of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC the federal agency that tracks and tries to prevent disease outbreaks and bioterrorist attacks around the world They are formally called the Epidemic Intelligence Service EIS a group founded more than fifty years ago out of fear that the Korean War might bring the use of biological weapons and like intelligence operatives in the traditional sense they perform their work largely in anonymity They are not household names but over the years they were first to confront the outbreaks that became known as hantavirus Ebola and AIDS Every day they work to protect us by hunting down the deadly threats that we forget until they dominate our headlines West Nile virus anthrax and SARS among others In this riveting narrative Maryn McKenna the only journalist ever given full access to the EIS in its fifty three year history follows the first class of disease detectives to come to the CDC after September 11 the first to confront not just naturally occurring outbreaks but the man made threat of bioterrorism They are talented researchers many with young families who trade two years of low pay and extremely long hours for the chance to be part of the group that are on the frontlines in the yellow suits and masks that has helped eradicate smallpox push back polio and solve the first major outbreaks of Legionnaires disease toxic shock syndrome and E coli O157 and works to battle every new disease before it becomes an epidemic Urgent exhilarating and compelling Beating Back the Devil takes you inside the world of these medical detectives who are trying to stop the next epidemic before the epidemics stop us Superbug Maryn McKenna,2010-03-23 LURKING in our homes hospitals schools and farms is a terrifying pathogen that is evolving faster than the medical community can track it or drug developers can create antibiotics to quell it That pathogen is MRSA methicillin resistant Staphylococcus aureus and Superbug is the first book to tell the story of its shocking spread and the alarming danger it poses to us all Doctors long thought that MRSA was confined to hospitals and clinics infecting almost exclusively those who were either already ill or old But through remarkable reporting including hundreds of interviews with the leading researchers and doctors tracking the deadly bacterium acclaimed science journalist Maryn McKenna reveals the hidden history of MRSA s relentless advance how it has overwhelmed hospitals assaulted families and infiltrated agriculture and livestock moving inexorably into the food chain Taking readers into the medical centers where frustrated physicians must discard drug after drug as they struggle to keep patients alive she discloses an explosion of cases that demonstrate how MRSA is growing more virulent while evolving resistance to antibiotics with astonishing speed It may infect us at any time no matter how healthy we are it is carried by a stunning number of our household pets and it has been detected in food animals from cows to chickens to pigs With the sensitivity of a novelist McKenna portrays the emotional and financial devastation endured by MRSA s victims vividly describing the many stealthy ways in which the pathogen overtakes the body and the shock and grief of parents whose healthy children were felled by infection in just hours Through dogged detective work she discloses the unheard warnings that predicted the current crisis and lays bare the flaws that have allowed MRSA to rage out of control misplaced government spending inadequate public health surveillance misguided agricultural practices and vast overuse of the few precious drugs we have left Empowering readers with the knowledge they need for self defense Superbug sounds an alarm MRSA has evolved into a global emergency that touches almost every aspect of modern life It is as one deeply concerned researcher tells McKenna the biggest thing since AIDS Survival of the Sickest LP Dr. Sharon Moalem,Jonathan Prince,2007-05-22 Was diabetes evolution s response to the last Ice Age Did a deadly genetic disease help our ancestors survive the bubonic plagues of Europe Will a visit to the tanning salon help lower your cholesterol Why do we age Why are some people immune to HIV Can your genes be turned on or off Survival of the Sickest is filled with fascinating insights and cutting edge research presented in a way that is both accessible and utterly absorbing This is a book about the interconnectedness of all life on earth and especially what that means for us Read it You re already living it Beating Back the Devil Maryn McKenna,2008-06-17 The universal human instinct is to run from an outbreak of disease like Ebola These doctors run toward it Their job is to stop epidemics from happening They are the disease detective corps of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC the federal agency that tracks and tries to prevent disease outbreaks and bioterrorist attacks around the world They are formally called the Epidemic Intelligence Service EIS a group founded more than fifty years ago out of fear that the Korean War might bring the use of biological weapons and like intelligence operatives in the traditional sense they perform their work largely in anonymity They are not household names but over the years they were first to confront the outbreaks that became known as hantavirus Ebola and AIDS Every day they work to protect us by hunting down the deadly threats that we forget until they dominate our headlines West Nile virus anthrax and SARS among others In this riveting narrative Maryn McKenna the only journalist ever given full access to the EIS in its fifty three year history follows the first class of disease detectives to come to the CDC after September 11 the first to confront not just naturally occurring outbreaks but the man made threat of bioterrorism They are talented researchers many with young families who trade two years of low pay and extremely long hours for the chance to be part of the group that are on the frontlines in the yellow suits and masks that has helped eradicate smallpox push back polio and solve the first major outbreaks of Legionnaires disease toxic shock syndrome and E coli O157 and works to battle every new disease before it

Bandlow,2006-02 This guide provides parents with an opportunity to chronicle their own personal history and past experiences as well as the history and experiences of their child s life in a direct loving and supportive way Don t wait let Parent To Child The Guide assist you in writing the legacy you want and need to leave for your children just in case Invasive Procedures Orson Scott Card,Aaron Johnston,2009-11-30 Orson Scott Card and Aaron Johnston s taut thriller Invasive Procedures takes readers a few years into the future and shows the promise and danger of new genetic medicine techniques George Galen is a brilliant scientist a pioneer in gene therapy But Galen is dangerously insane he has created a method to alter human DNA not just to heal diseases but to improve people make them stronger make them able to heal more quickly and make them compliant to his will Frank Hartman is also a brilliant virologist working for the government s ultra secret bio hazard agency He has discovered how to neutralize Galen s DNA changing virus making him the one man who stands in the way of Galen s plan to improve the entire human race At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Mission Mystique Charles T. Goodsell,2010-10-19 In an era filled with mistrust for big government and big business Charles Goodsell goes against this grain to draw attention to public agencies admired for what they do and how well they do it In his groundbreaking new book Goodsell places renewed focus on organizational mission and its potential to be a strong energizing force in government one that animates a workforce internally and attracts admiration and talent externally He offers a normative template for the mystique that underlies this phenomenon and highlights in six rich case studies a driving sense of purpose a cultural and motivational richness and a capacity for tolerating dissent while still innovating and learning Analyzing what works best and what doesn't Goodsell provides a metric through which agency mystique can be evaluated and modeled Goodsell's fresh take on public agencies not only defines good public administration in terms of ethical conduct constitutional accountability and performance effectiveness but argues that the field must add the crucial standard of institutional vitality

Chinese National Security Decisionmaking Under Stress Andrew Scobell, 2005 If there is one constant in expert analyses of the history of modern China it is the characterization of a country perpetually in the throes of crises While China at the mid point of the Twenty first Century's first decade is arguably the most secure and stable it has been in more than a century crises continue to emerge with apparent frequency Consequently the study of China's behavior in conditions of tension and stress is of considerable importance to policy makers and analysts around the world
