

Candidates should answer the questions from the following part only if they have opted for ENGLISH as LANGUAGE-II

Directions : Read the given passage carefully and answer the questions (Question Nos. 61 to 65) that follow by selecting the most appropriate option.

The first thing which a scholar should bear in mind is that a book ought not to be read for mere amusement. Half-educated persons read for amusement, and are not to be blamed for it; they are incapable of appreciating the deeper qualities that belong to a really great literature. But a young man who has passed through a course of University training should discipline himself at an early day never to read for mere amusement. And once the habit of discipline has been formed, he will find it impossible to read for mere amusement. He will then impatiently throw down any book from which he cannot obtain intellectual food, any book which does not make an appeal to the higher emotions and to his intellect. But on the other, the habit of reading for amusement becomes with thousands of people exactly the same kind of habit as wine-drinking or opium-smoking; it is like a narcotic, something that helps to pass the time, something that keeps up a perpetual condition of dreaming, something that eventually results in destroying all capacity for thought, giving exercise only to the surface parts of the mind and leaving the deeper springs of feelings and the higher faculties of perception unemployed.

61. The writer believes that half-educated persons are not able to
- (1) enjoy wine-drinking
 - (2) enjoy dreaming
 - (3) think properly
 - (4) appreciate hidden qualities of admirable literature

62. The word 'narcotic' in the passage means

- (1) great literature
- (2) intoxicant
- (3) cheap books
- (4) intellectual exercise

63. The phrase 'the higher faculties' in the passage means

- (1) different departments in the University
- (2) different ways of enjoying things
- (3) mental powers of a high order for understanding great literature
- (4) superficial part of the mind

64. The word 'eventually' in the passage means

- (1) after some time
- (2) at last
- (3) never
- (4) initially

65. The word 'unemployed' in the passage means

- (1) jobless
- (2) in search of employment
- (3) not working
- (4) unused
