Inventing the Future Nick Srnicek,Alex Williams,2015-11-17 This major new manifesto offers a clear and compelling vision of a postcapitalist society and shows how left wing politics can be rebuilt for the 21st century Mark Fisher author of Capitalist Realism Neoliberalism isn t working Austerity is forcing millions into poverty and many more into precarious work while the left remains trapped in stagnant political practices that offer no respite Inventing the Future is a bold new manifesto for life after capitalism Against the confused understanding of our high tech world by both the right and the left this book claims that the emancipatory and future oriented possibilities of our society can be reclaimed Instead of running from a complex future Nick Srnicek and Alex Williams demand a postcapitalist economy capable of advancing standards liberating humanity from work and developing technologies that expand our freedoms This new edition includes a new chapter where they respond to their various critics

Artificial Hells Claire Bishop,2012-07-24 Since the 1990s critics and curators have broadly accepted the notion that participatory art is the ultimate political art that by encouraging an audience to take part an artist can promote new emancipatory social relations Around the world the champions of this form of expression are numerous ranging from art historians such as Grant Kester curators such as Nicolas Bourriaud and Nato Thompson to performance theorists such as Shannon Jackson Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawe Althamer and Paul Chan Since her controversial essay in Artforum in 2006 Claire Bishop has been one of the few to challenge the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art In Artificial Hells she not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims made for these projects but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism

My Freshman Year Rebekah Nathan,2006-07-25 After fifteen years of teaching anthropology at a large university Rebekah Nathan had become baffled by her own students Their strange behavior eating meals at their desks not completing reading assignments remaining silent through class discussions made her feel as if she were dealing with a completely foreign culture So Nathan decided to do what anthropologists do when confused by a different culture Go live with them She enrolled as a freshman moved into the dorm ate in the dining hall and took a full load of courses And she came to understand that being a student is a pretty difficult job too Her discoveries about contemporary undergraduate culture are surprising and her observations are invaluable making My Freshman Year essential reading for students parents faculty and anyone interested in educational policy      Explore Harvard Harvard University,2011 As part of its 375th celebration the University has created a new photo book Explore Harvard The Yard and Beyond This collection of photographs including contemporary images never before published and archival prints brings to life the myriad intellectual exchanges that make Harvard one of the world s leading institutions of higher education      Everyone Eats E. N. Anderson,2005-03-01 Everyone eats but rarely do we ask why or investigate why we eat what we eat Why do we love spices sweets coffee How did rice become such a staple food throughout so much of eastern Asia Everyone Eats examines the social and cultural reasons for our food choices and provides an explanation of the nutritional reasons for why humans eat resulting in a unique cultural and biological approach to the topic E N Anderson explains the economics of food in the globalization era food s relationship to religion medicine and ethnicity as well as offers suggestions on how to end hunger starvation and malnutrition Everyone Eats feeds our need to understand human ecology by explaining the ways that cultures and political systems structure the edible environment      Islam and the Trajectory of Globalization Louay M. Safi,2021-10-18 The book examines the growing tension between social movements that embrace egalitarian and inclusivist views of national and global politics most notably classical liberalism and those that advance social hierarchy and national exclusivism such as neoliberalism neoconservatism and national populism In exploring issues relating to tensions and conflicts around globalization the book identifies historical patterns of convergence and divergence rooted in the monotheistic traditions beginning with the ancient Israelites that dominated the Near East during the Axial age through Islamic civilization and finally by considering the idealism realism tensions in modern times One thing remained constant throughout the various historical stages that preceded our current moment of global convergence a recurring tension between transcendental idealism and various forms of realism Transcendental idealism which prioritize egalitarian and universal values pushed periodically against the forces of realism that privilege established law and power structure Equipped with the idealism realism framework the book examines the consequences of European realism that justified the imperialistic venture into Africa the Middle East and Latin America in the name of liberation and liberalization The ill conceived strategy has ironically engendered the very dysfunctional societies that produce the waves of immigrants in constant motion from the South to the North simultaneously as it fostered the social hierarchy that transfer external tensions into identity politics within the countries of the North The book focuses particularly on the role played historically by Islamic rationalism in translating the monotheistic egalitarian outlook into the institutions of religious pluralism legislative and legal autonomy and scientific enterprise at the foundation of modern society It concludes by shedding light on the significance of the Muslim presence in Western cultures as humanity draws slowly but consistently towards what we may come to recognize as the Global Age The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003203360> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license      Gut Check Eric Kester,2019-08-13 A darkly comic high school drama about brotherhood body image concussions and toxic masculinity from Eric Kester the Boston Globe bestselling adult author of That Book About Harvard Wyatt has wanted nothing more than to play football on Grayport's championship winning team But not for the fame glory or girls It's his last chance to build a relationship with his older brother Brett the star quarterback before he leaves for college Now that their team has gained national attention a big win could be just what the small town needs in order to rebound from a fishing season that has been devastated by Red Tide But when Brett suffers a terrible concussion Wyatt must decide if keeping his brother's secret is worth risking his scholarship future Told with irreverent humor reminiscent of Carl Hiaasen and a stark honesty about brotherhood and masculinity for fans of Andrew Smith Gut Check explores the struggle of grappling with uncomfortable truths

Participation Claire Bishop, 2006 Participation in art has become a prevalent and contested phenomenon since the 1990s Artists have increasingly sought to create situations and events that invite spectators to become active participants in dialogue both with their context and with each other This reader charts a historical lineage and theoretical framework for this tendency presented through the writings of artists curators and philosophers from the late 1950s to the present Publisher's description

An Illustrated History of Health and Fitness, from Pre-History to our Post-Modern World Roy J. Shephard, 2014-11-27 This book examines the health fitness interaction in an historical context Beginning in primitive hunter gatherer communities where survival required adequate physical activity it goes on to consider changes in health and physical activity at subsequent stages in the evolution of civilization It focuses on the health impacts of a growing understanding of medicine and physiology and the emergence of a middle class with the time and money to choose between active and passive leisure pursuits The book reflects on urbanization and industrialization in relation to the need for public health measures and the ever diminishing physical demands of the work place It then evaluates the attitudes of prelates politicians philosophers and teachers at each stage of the process Finally the book explores professional and governmental initiatives to increase public involvement in active leisure through various school worksite recreational and sports programmes

Tactical Biopolitics Beatriz Da Costa, Kavita Philip, 2010-08-13 Scientists scholars and artists consider the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences Popular culture in this biological century seems to feed on proliferating fears anxieties and hopes around the life sciences at a time when such basic concepts as scientific truth race and gender identity and the human itself are destabilized in the public eye Tactical Biopolitics suggests that the political challenges at the intersection of life science and art are best addressed through a combination of artistic intervention critical theorizing and reflective practices Transcending disciplinary boundaries contributions to this volume focus on the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences and explore the possibility of public participation in scientific discourse drawing on research and practice in art biology critical theory anthropology and cultural studies After framing the subject in terms of both biology and art Tactical Biopolitics discusses such topics as race and genetics with contributions from leading biologists Richard Lewontin and Richard Levins feminist bioscience the politics of scientific expertise bioart and the public sphere with an essay by artist Claire Pentecost activism and public health with an essay by Treatment Action Group co founder Mark Harrington biosecurity after 9 11 with essays by artists collective Critical Art Ensemble and anthropologist Paul Rabinow and human animal interaction with a framing essay by cultural theorist Donna Haraway Contributors Gaymon Bennett Larry Carbone Karen Cardozo Gary Cass Beatriz da Costa Oron Catts Gabriella Coleman Critical Art Ensemble Gwen D Arcangelis Troy Duster Donna Haraway Mark Harrington Jens Hauser Kathy High Fatimah Jackson Gwyneth Jones Jonathan King Richard Levins Richard Lewontin Rachel Mayeri Sherie McDonald Claire Pentecost Kavita Philip Paul Rabinow Banu Subramanian subRosa Abha Sur Samir Sur Jacqueline Stevens Eugene Thacker Paul Vanouse Ionat Zurr

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Gr nstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs

Schlieren and Shadowgraph Techniques G.S. Settles, 2012-12-06 Schlieren and shadowgraph techniques are basic and valuable tools in various scientific and engineering disciplines They allow us to see the invisible the optical inhomogeneities in transparent media like air water and glass that otherwise cause only ghostly distortions of our normal vision These techniques are discussed briefly in many books and papers but there is no up to date complete treatment of the subject before now The book is intended as a practical guide for those who want to use these methods as well as a resource for a broad range of disciplines where scientific visualization is important The colorful 400 year history of these methods is covered in an extensive introductory chapter accessible to all readers Improvising Cinema Gilles Mouëllic,2013 Gilles Mou llic examines improvisational practices that can be specifically attributed to the cinema and argues in favors of their powers as instigators of unprecedented forms of expression Improvising Cinema reflects both on the permanence of attempting improvisation and the relationship between technology and aesthetics Mou llic concludes preservation becomes even more invaluable in the case of improvisation as the creative act exists only within the brief time span of the performance A Magician Among the Spirits Harry Houdini,1924 The Cornell Widow ,1899
