much more The Walk Stephen Smallman,2009 THE WALK is a book written to those who have an expressed desire to follow Christ as his disciple It assumes no prior understanding of what that means nor does it assume that the person has actually come to a point of professing faith It uses as a starting point a Roman pagan who is newly converted and wondering what next but also regularly addresses those who have grown up Christian and may take for granted the realities that would be new to a recent convert Good Mood, Bad Mood Charles D. Hodges, M.D.,2013-01-28 Depression and bipolar disorder are two of the most common diagnoses made in medicine today Are we in an epidemic of bad moods or is there another explanation Good Mood Bad Mood examines whether it is an epidemic or if we have simply changed how we label depression While medical treatment is now the commonly accepted way to deal with pain and sadness its promise has not been fulfilled Dr Charles Hodges offers an explanation to help the reader see the importance of sadness and the help and hope that God gives us in His Word The Pastor's Wife Gloria Furman,2015-04-16 Pastors wives are in a privileged yet often difficult position Various challenges make it is easy for ministry wives to feel discouraged about their relationship with God lose their wonder at the mystery of the church and forget the joy of serving alongside their husband In this encouraging and humorous book Gloria Furman offers pastors wives a breath of fresh air reminding readers that Christ stands ready to help regardless of the circumstance whether it s late night counseling sessions unrealistic expectations about how they spend their time or complaints about their husbands preaching Filled with life giving truth from God s Word regarding the privilege of ministry in Christ s name this book will help women joyfully treasure their Savior serve their husbands and love their churches The Church on Mission Craig Ott,2019-05-21 In this scripturally rich exploration senior missiologist Craig Ott unpacks the mission statement of the church to glorify God by multiplying transformational churches among all people This concise yet robust biblical theological treatment focuses on God s glory a strong ecclesiology the importance of Scripture and practical implications for congregational and mission practice Ideal for launching discussion and reflection the book helps readers refocus their vision and reignite their commitment to fulfilling God s purposes for their church or mission Counsel from the Cross Elyse M. Fitzpatrick,Dennis E. Johnson,2009-06-08 Demonstrates the why and the how of consistently biblical gospel centric counseling whether in the pastor s study or over coffee with a friend With the evermore apparent failure of modern psychotherapies and a discomfort with pharmacological strategies many churches are reaffirming the sufficiency and power of the Scriptures to change lives To aid churches in ministering to broken and hurting people the authors of Counsel from the Cross present a counseling model based on Scripture powered by the work of the Wonderful Counselor Jesus Christ Through careful exegesis and helpful case studies they demonstrate the why and the how of consistently biblical gospel centered counseling The authors combined backgrounds one a woman trained in biblical counseling and the other a male professor of practical theology bring balance to this work making it relevant for those who counsel as part of pastoral ministry and for those involved in friendship mentoring or discipleship Gospel Fluency Jeff

Vanderstelt,2017-02-14 flu en cy noun the ability to speak a language easily and effectively Even if they want to many Christians find it hard to talk to others about Jesus Is it possible this difficulty is because we re trying to speak a language we haven t actually spent time practicing To become fluent in a new language you must immerse yourself in it until you actually start to think about life through it Becoming fluent in the gospel happens the same way after believing it we have to intentionally rehearse it to ourselves and to others and immerse ourselves in its truths Only then will we start to see how everything in our lives from the mundane to the magnificent is transformed by the hope of the gospel
