Your Money and Your Brain Jason Zweig, 2007-09-04 Drawing on the latest scientific research Jason Zweig shows what happens in your brain when you think about money and tells investors how to take practical simple steps to avoid common mistakes and become more successful What happens inside our brains when we think about money Quite a lot actually and some of it isn't good for our financial health In Your Money and Your Brain Jason Zweig explains why smart people make stupid financial decisions and what they can do to avoid these mistakes Zweig a veteran financial journalist draws on the latest research in neuroeconomics a fascinating new discipline that combines psychology neuroscience and economics to better understand financial decision making He shows why we often misunderstand risk and why we tend to be overconfident about our investment decisions Your Money and Your Brain offers some radical new insights into investing and shows investors how to take control of the battlefield between reason and emotion Your Money and Your Brain is as entertaining as it is enlightening In the course of his research Zweig visited leading neuroscience laboratories and subjected himself to numerous experiments He blends anecdotes from these experiences with stories about investing mistakes including confessions of stupidity from some highly successful people Then he draws lessons and offers original practical steps that investors can take to make wiser decisions Anyone who has ever looked back on a financial decision and said How could I have been so stupid will benefit from reading this book

Messages, Signs, and Meanings Marcel Danesi,2004 Messages Signs and Meanings can be used directly in introductory courses in semiotics communications media or culture studies Additionally it can be used as a complementary or supplementary text in courses dealing with cognate areas of investigation psychology mythology education literary studies anthropology linguistics The text builds upon what readers already know intuitively about signs and then leads them to think critically about the world in which they live a world saturated with images of all kinds that a basic knowledge of semiotics can help filter and deconstruct The text also provides opportunities for readers to do hands on semiotics through the exercises and questions for discussion that accompany each chapter Biographical sketches of the major figures in the field are also included as is a convenient glossary of technical terms The overall plan of the book is to illustrate how message making and meaning making can be studied from the specific vantage point of the discipline of semiotics This third edition also includes updated discussions of information technology throughout focusing especially on how meanings are now negotiated through such channels as websites chat rooms and instant messages Jacket

Raising Race Questions Ali Michael, 2015 Conversations about race can be confusing contentious and frightening particularly for White people Even just asking questions about race can be scary because we are afraid of what our questions might reveal about our ignorance or bias Raising Race Questions invites teachers to use inquiry as a way to develop sustained engagement with challenging racial questions and to do so in community so that they learn how common their questions actually are It lays out both a process for getting to questions that lead to growth and change as well as a vision for where engagement with race questions might lead Race questions are not meant to lead us into a quagmire of guilt discomfort or isolation Sustained race inquiry is meant to lead to anti racist classrooms positive racial identities and a restoration of the wholeness of spirit and community that racism undermines Book Features Case studies of expert and experienced White teachers who still have questions about race Approaches for talking about race in the K 12 classroom Strategies for facilitating race conversations among adults A variety of different resources useful in the teacher inquiry groups described in the book Research with teachers not on teachers including written responses from each teacher whose classroom is featured in the book In Raising Race Questions Ali Michael is an excavator determined to dig into every unexplored crevice of White teachers experiences with race in order to unearth the complex realities of racism and schooling and a model of reflective inquiry willing to lay herself and her assumptions bare in service to the reader s consciousness and her own This book grew my consciousness in multiple ways and that is the greatest gift an author can give me Paul Gorski founder EdChange associate professor George Mason University Ali Michael has a gift for getting people talking This must read book captures her magic and shares useful strategies for teachers and schools working to develop their racial proficiency As a White teacher engaged in this work I ve watched these tools help educators support one another as they make mistakes reflect and grow together Lynn Eckerman Teacher Independence Charter School Philadelphia PA
