The Young Child Margaret B. Puckett, 2009 This volume examines the development of young children within an ecological context that includes the family the school community and society as a whole Major child development theories are discussed as they relate to all aspects of the young child s growth The authors provide information on children s development the role of families how to observe young children and curriculum development The authors also discuss the major and contemporary development theories as they related to physical social and emotional and cognitive domains

The Young Child Donna Sasse Wittmer, Sandra H. Petersen, Margaret B. Puckett, 2013 The authors have written specifically to provide the student of child development with a sound knowledge base of current theory and research in the field of early growth development and learning and its translation into practice in the daily lives of very young children Time honored theories of child development are discussed and applied to current knowledge about how children develop and learn Contemporary theories such as Cognitive Core Systems and Neoconstructivism and Contextual theories Dynamic Systems and Relationship Based Theories are added to this edition to further aid pre educators with a deeper understanding of the early childhood years birth through eight The authors apply theories and the supporting research based on these theories to Early Childhood Education practices in the classroom and with families Publisher Outlines and Highlights for Observing Development of the Young Child by Janice J Beaty, Isbn Cram101 Textbook Reviews,2011-03 Never HIGHLIGHT a Book Again Virtually all of the testable terms concepts persons places and events from the textbook are included Cram101 Just the FACTS101 studyguides give all of the outlines highlights notes and quizzes for your textbook with optional online comprehensive practice tests Only Cram101 is Textbook Specific Accompanys 9780135025895 Growth and Development of the Young Child Marian Edgar Breckenridge,1969 The Young Child Donna S.
