The Ash Warriors C. R. Anderegg,2000 In November 1991 the American flag was lowered for the last time at Clark Air

Base in the Philippines This act brought to an end American military presence in the Philippines that extended back over 90 years It also represented the final act in a drama that began with the initial rumblings in April of that year of the Mount Pinatubo volcano located about nine miles to the east of Clark This book tells the remarkable story of the men and women of the Clark community and their ordeal in planning for and carrying out their evacuation from Clark in face of the impending volcanic activity It documents the actions of those who remained on the base during the series of Mount Pinatubo's eruptions and the packing out of the base during the subsequent months This is the story of the Ash Warriors those Air Force men and women who carried out their mission in the face of an incredible series of natural disasters including volcanic eruption flood typhoons and earthquakes all of which plagued Clark and the surrounding areas during June and July 1991
