New Curriculum History, 2019-02-11 Rereading the historical record indicates that it is no longer so easy to argue that history is simply prior to its forms Since the mid 1990s a new wave of research has formed around wider debates in the humanities and social sciences such as decentering the subject new analytics of power reconsideration of one dimensional time and three dimensional space attention to beyond archival sources alterity Otherness the invisible and more In addition broader and contradictory impulses around the question of the nation transnational post national proto national and neo national movements have unearthed a new series of problematics and focused scholarly attention on traveling discourses national imaginaries and less formal processes of socialization bonding and subjectification New Curriculum History challenges prior occlusions in the field building upon and departing from previous waves of scholarship extending the focus beyond the insularity of public schooling the traditional framework of the self contained nation state and the psychology of the schooled individual Drawing on global studies historical sociology postcolonial studies critical race theory visual culture theory disability studies psychoanalytics Cambridge school structuralisms poststructuralisms and infra and transnational approaches the volume holds together not despite but because of differences and incommensurabilities in rereading historical records Wetlands Ecology and Priorities for Conservation in Zimbabwe T. Matiza, S. A. Crafter, 1994 Arabella Anonymous, 2024-09-26 Arabella is a critical exploration of societal expectations personal ambition and the complexities of love and virtue In this work the author critiques the rigid social norms and expectations placed upon individuals particularly women in the 18th century Arabella the protagonist is a young woman raised in seclusion whose ideas of love and virtue are heavily influenced by romantic novels Her romantic ideals clash with the real world leading to a series of misunderstandings and comedic situations The novel provides a subtle commentary on the dangers of allowing fiction to dictate one's reality while also critiquing the limited roles available to women in society Since its publication Arabella has been recognized for its humor and its nuanced critique of gender roles and societal pressures The novel explores the tension between individual desires and societal constraints with Arabella's character serving as both a vehicle for comedy and a reflection on the serious limitations placed on women during the period The work remains relevant for its exploration of the social and cultural dynamics of the time and for its portrayal of a woman's struggle to reconcile her personal beliefs with societal expectations By examining the consequences of rigid social norms and romantic idealism Arabella continues to offer insights into the challenges faced by individuals in navigating the complexities of identity love and society Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo's book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole, Aged 13 3/4 Sue Townsend,2003-08-14 Adrian Mole s first love Pandora has left him a neighbor Mr Lucas appears to be seducing his mother and what does that mean for his father the BBC refuses to publish his poetry and his dog swallowed the tree off the Christmas cake Why indeed
