When God's Ways Make No Sense Dr. Larry Crabb, 2018-07-03 It doesn't take too much living before we realize that life never goes quite the way we want it to. But when things get hard and we don't understand what God is doing, what is our first impulse? Is it to resist him and run away like Jonah? Or is it to trust him even while trembling in fear of suffering like Habakkuk? In this powerful exploration of God's often mysterious and counterintuitive ways, Dr. Larry Crabb challenges readers to seize the opportunities for growth and maturity that come our way when we experience troubles and failures. Rather than pushing back against adversity, he invites us to look closer at what God is doing in our lives when it feels like he is far from us. Unpacking the stories of two very different prophets, Crabb lights the way to a life of resting in the goodness of a God who is always working out his plan for our lives.

Dr. Joseph Needham, a long-time pastor, professor, and Bible teacher, examines this fact in light of Scripture, science, psychology, history, and philosophy. His insights include suggestions and strategies for those dealing with gender dysphoria.

Nine Thoughts That Can Change Your Marriage Sheila Wray Gregoire, 2015-08-18 Is what you believe about marriage getting in the way of a GREAT relationship? When you've put into practice all the usual advice but your marriage still falls short of the intimacy and joy you want, what then? Are patience and perseverance your only hope for a better relationship? Author and speaker Sheila Wray Gregoire says, Absolutely not. The solution to a happier relationship is not found in being a more patient, more perfect wife but in taking responsibility for what you can do, and especially for how you think about your marriage. She challenges you to replace pat Christian answers with nine biblical truths that will radically shift your perspective on your husband, your relationship, and your role in God's design for marriage, including: My Husband Can't Make Me Mad, Being One Is More Important Than Being Right, Having Sex Is Not the Same as Making Love. With humor and honesty, Sheila invites you to believe that God wants to bring oneness and intimacy to your marriage and challenges you to partner with Him in that process by changing the way you think.

Where Are You? John Paterson,2019-03-20 In our postmodern world where the individual self is the centre of the universe and God seems at best to be weak and irrelevant have you ever wondered where you are Often when I ponder what s going on in the world around me and in the relationships between me and others and then go deeper inside of myself than what is going on at the surface of my life I get a sense of something significant deep within me but it s not me so I wonder what it is Do you have that sense By the way if I am the centre of the universe where does that leave you off centre As a hydrographic surveyor in the Australian navy for nearly thirty years I often found myself in uncharted waters searching for the unknown so as to make it known What really gave me a sense of confidence was being able to know exactly where I was at all times founded on three known measuring marks each accurately fixed according to an established datum Since I am now searching in a different way yet often still in uncharted waters and at a really deep level like C S Lewis and others before me I want to find the something that I just know is there because I know that when I do I will know more about who I am and where I am in this life But I will need known marks and an established datum because without them I am unreferenced You see there s more to me than you can see and I know that is true about you too If you want to go on a search for something come surveying with me Maybe this book will help you understand where you are
