Good Economics for Hard Times Abhijit V. Banerjee, Esther Duflo, 2019-11-12 The winners of the Nobel Prize show how economics when done right can help us solve the thorniest social and political problems of our day Figuring out how to deal with today s critical economic problems is perhaps the great challenge of our time Much greater than space travel or perhaps even the next revolutionary medical breakthrough what is at stake is the whole idea of the good life as we have known it Immigration and inequality globalization and technological disruption slowing growth and accelerating climate change these are sources of great anxiety across the world from New Delhi and Dakar to Paris and Washington DC The resources to address these challenges are there what we lack are ideas that will help us jump the wall of disagreement and distrust that divides us If we succeed history will remember our era with gratitude if we fail the potential losses are incalculable In this revolutionary book renowned MIT economists Abhijit V Banerjee and Esther Duflo take on this challenge building on cutting edge research in economics explained with lucidity and grace Original provocative and urgent Good Economics for Hard Times makes a persuasive case for an intelligent interventionism and a society built on compassion and respect It is an extraordinary achievement one that shines a light to help us appreciate and understand our precariously balanced world

The Varieties of Religious Experience William James, 2009-01-01 Harvard psychologist and philosopher William James The Varieties of Religious Experience A Study in Human Nature explores the nature of religion and in James observation its divorce from science when studied academically After publication in 1902 it quickly became a canonical text of philosophy and psychology remaining in print through the entire century Scientific theories are organically conditioned just as much as religious emotions are and if we only knew the facts intimately enough we should doubtless see the liver determining the dicta of the sturdy atheist as decisively as it does those of the Methodist under conviction anxious about his soul When it alters in one way the blood that percolates it we get the Methodist when in another way we get the atheist form of mind

Schools of Thought Rexford Brown, 1993-08-10 As a result of his visits to classrooms across the nation Brown has compiled an engaging thought provoking collection of classroom vignettes which show the ways in which national state and local school politics translate into changed classroom practices Captures the breadth depth and urgency of education reform Bill Clinton
