Based on conversations with thousands of pastors combined with on-the-ground research from more than 50,000 churches, best-selling author Thom S. Rainer shares an eight-stage roadmap to leading change in your church. Not by changing doctrine. Not by changing biblical foundations. But by changing methodologies and approaches for reaching a rapidly changing culture. You are the pastor. You are the church staff person. You are an elder. You are a deacon. You are a key lay leader in the church. This is the book that will equip you to celebrate and lead change, no matter the cost. The time is now.

Welcoming Children Joyce Ann Mercer, 2005-11-01 This book develops a theology of childhood both from a theoretical basis in biblical theology, especially the gospel of Mark, and practical experience in children and youth ministry. Mercer builds on classical theologians such as Augustine, Calvin, Barth, and Rahner, as well as modern feminist theologians such as Brock and Russell. She gains insights from pastoral theologians such as Capps and Couture and from contemporary cultural criticism. Mercer challenges approaches to educational and liturgical practices with children in congregations that segregate children from the rest of the church and its key practices of service, mission, worship, care, and learning. She reframes ministries with children as processes through which the church, as a community of practice, forms children into an alternative identity that resists surrounding consumerist culture and walks in the ways of Jesus. This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question: What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children's learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith? Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood, it explores five basic theological claims: 1. children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship; 2. welcoming those who welcome and care for children; 3. children as already fully human; 4. children as part of the purposes of God; and 5. acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children.
