Rules of Engagement L.A. Witt, 2019-09-04
Dustin Walker is still finding his footing after a long overdue divorce when he challenges a pool shark to a game in a bar. Enter Brandon Stewart, funny, friendly, and flirty. And Dustin is flirting back. Forget finding his footing; Dustin is swept right off his feet by this sweet, gorgeous man. Suddenly, he's exploring a whole new side of himself and his sexuality, and for the first time in his life, he's discovering what it's like to be in a healthy, functional relationship. But Dustin's conservative family still isn't over his divorce, and they aren't at all interested in accepting him getting involved with a man. As they question him, he second-guesses himself: Is this really what he wants? Is he really bisexual? Or is Brandon just attractive because he's so different from Dustin's ex-wife? Whatever the case, Dustin had better figure it out soon, because Brandon's patience will only stretch so far, especially if he's being asked to hide in someone else's closet. By the time Dustin realizes he's in love, it just might be too late. This book was previously published and has been revised, including a new ending.
