Avery, 1972 Fuel Economy Guide, 2009 Corporate-Level Strategy Michael Goold, Andrew Campbell, Marcus Alexander, 1994-09-09 Advance praise for Corporate Level Strategy At last a book that cuts through all the corporate jargon and academic generalizations to answer the question Does the corporate parent create or destroy value for the organization The authors suggest a simple yet compelling framework for making this determination Must reading for students and practitioners alike Robert Cizik Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Cooper Industries In an era when the role of corporate level management is quite justifiably being questioned and challenged it is refreshing to find a book that clearly shows how parent companies can add rather than destroy value in their businesses As we would expect of these world class authorities

Goold Campbell and Alexander have leveraged their fascinating research findings into an eminently readable and highly practical book
Chris Bartlett Professor Harvard Business School A vital and deeply researched contribution to thinking about corporate strategy
Gary Hamel London Business School I am very impressed by the extensive work on which this book is based and by the concept of parenting advantage that it puts forward
Yasutaka Obayashi Senior General Manager Corporate Strategy Canon Great companies grow they don't just cut
With breakups and restructuring done corporate parenting is coming back
Goold Campbell and Alexander have produced a comprehensive and intelligent book which should become a standard guide on the subject
Tom Hout Vice President The Boston Consulting Group A perceptive and valuable insight into an often underestimated area of strategy
This book clearly demonstrates the importance of parenting to the longer term development and prosperity of multibusiness companies
Alan R Jackson Chief Executive BTR I am glad someone has so well and so fully shed light on this important body of thinking

Rethinking a Lot Eran Ben-Joseph, 2015 As the number of passenger cars in the world increases daily so too does Earth's supply of parking spaces
In some cities parking lots cover more than one third of the metropolitan footprint but their design and function has not been rethought since the 1950s
Here urban designer Eran Ben Joseph shares a different vision for parking's future aesthetically pleasing environmentally and architecturally responsible
He provides a visual history of this often ignored urban space introducing us to some of the many alternative and nonparking purposes that parking lots have served
He shows us parking lots that are lushly planted with trees and flowers and beautifully integrated with the rest of the built environment
With purposeful design Ben Joseph argues parking lots could be significant public places contributing as much to their communities as great boulevards parks or plazas

Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa Hans Reihling, 2020 Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa explores how different masculinities modulate substance use interpersonal violence suicidality and AIDS as well as recovery cross culturally With a focus on three male protagonists living in very distinct urban areas of Cape Town this comparative ethnography shows that men s struggles to become invulnerable increase vulnerability Through an analysis of masculinities as social assemblages the study shows how affective health problems are tied to modern individualism rather than African tradition that has become a clich e in Eurocentric gender studies Affective health is conceptualized as a balancing act between autonomy and connectivity that after colonialism and apartheid has become compromised through the imperative of self reliance This book provides a rare perspective on young men s vulnerability in everyday life that may affect the reader and spark discussion about how masculinities in relationships shape physical and psychological health Moreover it shows how men change in the face of distress in ways that may look different than global health and gender transformative approaches envision Thick descriptions of actual events over the life course make the study accessible to both graduate and undergraduate students in the social sciences Contributing to current debates on mental health and masculinity the volume will be of interest to scholars from a number of disciplines including anthropology gender studies African studies psychology and global health Did I Ever Tell You...? Iris Grender, 1977 The Wind of the Camargue Federica De Cesco, 1972 When
