Representing Yourself in Federal Court United States District Court,Northern District of California,2017-08-04 This

Handbook is designed to help people dealing with civil lawsuits in federal court without legal representation Proceeding without a lawyer is called proceeding pro se¹ a Latin phrase meaning for oneself or sometimes in propria persona meaning in his or her own person Representing yourself in a lawsuit can be complicated time consuming and costly Failing to follow court procedures can mean losing your case For these reasons you are urged to work with a lawyer if possible Chapter 2 gives suggestions on finding a lawyer Do not rely entirely on this Handbook This Handbook provides a summary of civil lawsuit procedures but it may not cover all procedures that may apply in your case It also does not teach you about the laws that will control your case Make sure you read the applicable federal and local court rules and do your own research at a law library or online to understand your case The United States District Court for the Northern District of California has Clerk s Offices in the San Francisco San Jose and Oakland courthouses Clerk s Office staff can answer general questions but they cannot give you any legal advice For example they cannot help you decide what to do in your lawsuit tell you what the law means or even advise you when documents are due There are Legal Help Centers in the San Francisco Oakland and San Jose courthouses where you can get free help with your lawsuit from an attorney who can help you prepare documents and give limited legal advice This attorney will not be your lawyer and you will still be representing yourself See Chapter 2 for more details
