"Every important journey should start with a map.

Maps guide us and give us direction. The purpose of this introduction is to help students navigate the AP Human Geography course by understanding the expectations involved in class, thus giving students a road map and providing them direction as they start their exploration. For many students, AP Human Geography will be their first venture into a college experience and the AP environment. In addition to this challenge, AP Human Geography may also be their first full yearlong course focused solely on geography. Therefore, it is imperative for students to have an idea of what to anticipate before the year starts" --

Textbook Tools accompany kids all year long. This AP Human Geography companion is filled with vocab and assignments that follow the de Blij text throughout the year, chapter-by-chapter. They can be used as regular weekly assignments or reviews. They can be used on short notice if there is a sub, or be done as homework. All you need is the textbook. Teachers can copy at will, or the book can be used as a student consumable. As publishers started putting the majority of their content online, it opened a niche for traditional paper assignments, a void this series fills. Whether the text itself is written in ink or electrons, students still need to write and keep a notebook for themselves, and portfolios still matter. These activities challenge students to apply the concepts and give examples, diagramming each chapter as it comes.
