

College Admission Essay

On the surface, I can proudly say that I like being young and modern. I always take life and school issues seriously because I have set goals and real dreams for my future. I am determined to make unimaginable things happen in life, and I do not wait for people to help me accomplish what seems hard. I always try my best to achieve my dreams. I am a unique person, and I often find myself standing out among the crowd.

I come from a simple background where I live with my dad, mom, and sister. However, my dad occasionally travels to attend to work issues, but he comes over every weekend to see us. Sometimes, when I reflect on my family, I realize that I am a fortunate person to have very supportive parents. They like to see me doing well health-wise, physically, and academically. My parents often say that I am an exceptional child because of how I handle life and the assistance I offer to them during the holidays. Sometimes I seek jobs to keep myself busy and help them raise some money. I am friendly and obedient, and I never intentionally disappoint them.

I have always performed well in school. I keep my grades high all the time, and I am very proud of this. Although sometimes I do not excel in all subjects, I have learned to put that extra effort needed to achieve what I need. Doing sports during my leisure time has become part of my life. I like playing field hockey with my friends in the evening and over the weekends when I get time. It has helped me realize that teamwork is essential in life. Sometimes when tasks seem unachievable, I find time to relax and visualize the entire picture, then break it down. Finally, I realize the job was manageable. From that, I plan how I will excel in it next time.

Write Your Way In Rachel Toor,2017-08-03 Toor s style is friendly funny and genuinely compelling exhorting students to go deeper with their writing even and especially when the stakes are high School Library Journal Writing for most of us is bound up with anxiety It s even worse when it feels like your whole future or at least where you ll spend the next four years in college is on the line It s easy to understand why so many high school seniors put off working on their applications until the last minute or end up with a generic and clich d essay The good news You already have the secret sauce for crafting a compelling personal essay your own experiences and your unique voice The best essays rarely catalog how students have succeeded or achieved Good writing shows the reader how you ve struggled and describes mistakes you ve made Excellent essays express what you re fired up about illustrate how you think and illuminate the ways you've grown. More than twenty million students apply to college every year; many of them look similar in terms of test scores, grades, courses taken, extracurricular activities. Admissions officers wade through piles of files. As an applicant, you need to think about what will interest an exhausted reader. What can you write that will make her argue to admit you instead of the thousands of other applicants? A good essay will be conversational and rich in vivid details, and it could only be written by one person: you. This book will help you figure out how to find and present the best in yourself. You'll acquire some useful tools for writing well and may even have fun in the process.

Valedictorians at the Gate Becky Munsterer Sabky, 2021-08-03. Named one of Grown & Flown's Best Book on College Admissions and Paying for College. The most honest, most helpful book I've ever read on applying to college. New York Times bestselling author Adam Grant, a former Ivy League Admissions Officer, offers an inspiring battle cry for sanity in the college application process that looks beyond the rankings to successfully determine what's truly the best school for you or your child. After spending years as a college admissions director at Dartmouth, Becky Munsterer Sabky had seen it all: the perfect grades, the perfect scores, and the perfect extracurriculars. Valedictorians were knocking at the gate, but Becky realized that in their quest for admission, many of these students were missing something. Their transcripts were golden, their interviews polished, but they weren't applying for college; they were competing for it, and in the end, they didn't know what prize they were really striving for. In Valedictorians at the Gate, Sabky looks beyond the smoke and mirrors of the intimidating admissions gauntlet and places the power firmly where it should be: in the hands of the students themselves. Offering prescriptive, actionable advice for students and their hopefully not helicoptering parents, Sabky illuminates the pathway to finding the school that is the ideal match. Witty and warm, informative and inspiring, Valedictorians at the Gate is the needed tonic for overstressed, overworked, and overwhelmed students on their way to the perfect college for them.

Get Real and Get In Dr. Aviva Legatt, 2021-08-03. An insider's college admissions guide that teaches students to identify and harness their unique passions, stand out from the crowd, and achieve their dreams. Dr. Aviva Legatt has spent her career in higher education as a professor, counselor, and admissions officer in the Ivy League, and she wants to let students in on a secret: admissions offices are sick of seeing the same cookie-cutter applications. What were once considered best practices for doing high school right are now so commonplace that they have become a liability. Get Real and Get In teaches readers to think outside the box and focus on what admissions officers are really looking for: young people who dare to be their most authentic selves. Through engaging, accessible, and empathetic prose, this book forms an inspirational roadmap for readers to uncover their true passions and leverage them to create applications that truly stand out from the crowd. It also features a variety of useful exercises and candid stories from many influential figures which teach students to look beyond just getting into a good college and focus more actively on identifying and attaining their long-term goals. Get Real and Get In is designed to ignite an essential mindset shift in students: stop trying to just get in and start figuring out exactly what you want from life and how to get it. Stop managing the impressions you make on admissions officers and start defying impressions This is an essential guide to cutting through the noise of the admissions process and gaining the confidence to forge one's own path to success in college and beyond

Only once did David Foster Wallace give a public talk on his views on life during a commencement address given in 2005 at Kenyon College. The speech is reprinted for the first time in book form in THIS IS WATER. How does one keep from going through their comfortable, prosperous adult life unconsciously? How do we get ourselves out of the foreground of our thoughts and achieve compassion? The speech captures Wallace's electric intellect as well as his grace in attention to others. After his death, it became a treasured piece of writing, reprinted in The Wall Street Journal and the London Times, commented on endlessly in blogs, and emailed from friend to friend. Writing with his one of a kind blend of causal humor exacting intellect and practical philosophy David Foster Wallace probes the challenges of daily living and offers advice that renews us with every reading
