Crossworld Marc Romano, 2005 Sixty four million people do it at least once a week Nabokov wrote about it Bill Clinton even did it in the White House The crossword puzzle has arguably been our national obsession since its birth almost a century ago Now in Crossworld writer translator and lifelong puzzler Marc Romano goes where no Number 2 pencil has gone before as he delves into the minds of the world's cleverest crossword creators and puzzlers and sets out on his own quest to join their ranks While covering the American Crossword Puzzle Tournament for the Boston Globe Romano was amazed by the skill of the competitors and astonished by the cast of characters he came across like Will Shortz beloved editor of the New York Times puzzle and the only academically accredited enigmatologist puzzle scholar Stanley Newman Newsday's puzzle editor and the fastest solver in the world and Brendan Emmett Quigley the wickedly gifted puzzle constructor and the Virgil to Marc's Dante in his travels through the crossword inferno Chronicling his own journey into the world of puzzling even providing tips on how to improve crosswording skills Romano tells the story of crosswords and word puzzles themselves and of the colorful people who make them solve them and occasionally become consumed by them But saying this is a book about puzzles is to tell only half the story It is also an explanation into what crosswords tell us about ourselves about the world we live in the cultures that nurture us and the different ways we think and learn If you're a puzzler Crossworld will enthrall you If you have no idea why your spouse spend so much time filling letters into little white squares Crossworld will tell you and with luck save your marriage

CROSSWORD by Marc Romano ACROSS 1 I am hopelessly addicted to the New York Times crossword puzzle 2 Like many addicts I was reluctant to admit I have a problem 3 The hints I was heading for trouble came at first only occasionally 4 The moments of panic when I realized that I might not get my fix on a given day 5 The toll on relationships 6 The strained friendships 7 The lost hours I could have used to do something more productive 8 It gets worse too DOWN 1 You're not just playing a game 2 You're constantly broadening your intellectual horizons 3 You spend a lot of time looking at and learning about the world around you 4 You have to if you want to develop the accumulated store of factual information you'll need to get through a crossword puzzle 5 Puzzle people are nice because they have to be 6 The more you know about the world the more you tend to give all things in it the benefit of the doubt before deciding if you like them or not 7 I'm not saying that all crossword lovers are honest folk dripping with goodness 8 I would say though that if I had to toss my keys and wallet to someone before jumping off a pier to save a drowning girl I'd look for the fellow in the crowd with the daily crossword in his hand From the Hardcover edition

The Small-Scale Fisheries Guidelines Svein Jentoft, Ratana Chuenpagdee, María José Barragán-Paladines, Nicole Franz, 2017-06-10 In June 2014 FAO member states endorsed the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries SSF Guidelines These Guidelines are one of the most significant landmarks for small scale fisheries around the world They are comprehensive in terms of topics covered and progressive with their foundations based on human rights and other key principles It can be anticipated that implementing the SSF Guidelines whether at local national or regional levels will be challenging This book contains in depth case studies where authors discuss the extent to which the Guidelines can help improve the realities of small scale fishing men and women globally and make their livelihoods and communities more secure This will require policy intervention and innovation along with contributions of civil society organizations and academia However most of all it will necessitate the empowerment of fishing people so that they can become active participants in decision making on matters where their well being and human rights are at stake By endorsing the SSF Guidelines states have committed themselves to support and facilitate this development This book asks whether states can successfully walk the talk and provides advice as to how they can do so The collection of case studies sets the platform for an interactive dialogue space for researchers policy makers civil society and small scale fishing communities to start the conversation about the monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of the SSF Guidelines at local national regional and global levels An added value is that it helps add focus to our work as civil society activists involved in ensuring the application of the SSF Guidelines Naseegh Jaffer General Secretary World Forum of Fisher People WFFP This collection offers many ways in which institutions enabling small scale fisheries can protect and promote sustainability food security customary tenure self management and market access while fostering such benefits as ecosystem based management protected areas incorporation of local knowledge and poverty alleviation You will want to put this book in the hands of policy makers and practitioners immediately and for years to come Evelyn Pinkerton Professor Simon Fraser University Canada
