Arabian deserts From the inventor of the Godzilla epics to a miserable G I in New Guinea each comes to realize that knowing better is never enough Enthralling and unfailingly compassionate You Think That s Bad traverses centuries continents and social strata but the joy and struggle that Shepard depicts with such devastating sensitivity all the heartbreak alienation intimacy and accomplishment has a universal resonance

Architecture and Modern Literature David Anton Spurr,2017-05-09 Architecture and Modern Literature explores the representation and interpretation of architectural space in modern literature from the early nineteenth century to the present with the aim of showing how literary production and architectural construction are related as cultural forms in the historical context of modernity In addressing this subject it also examines the larger questions of the relation between literature and architecture and the extent to which these two arts define one another in the social and philosophical contexts of modernity Architecture and Modern Literature will serve as a foundational introduction to the emerging interdisciplinary study of architecture and literature David Spurr addresses a broad range of material including literary critical and philosophical works in English French and German and proposes a new historical and theoretical overview of this area in which modern forms of meaning in architecture and literature are related to the discourses of being dwelling and homelessness

Clueless in Academe Gerald Graff,2008-10-01 Gerald Graff argues that our schools and colleges make the intellectual life seem more opaque narrowly specialized and beyond normal learning capacities than it is or needs to be Left clueless in the academic world many students view the life of the mind as a secret society for which only an elite few qualify In a refreshing departure from standard diatribes against academia Graff shows how academic unintelligibility is unwittingly reinforced not only by academic jargon and obscure writing but by the disconnection of the curriculum and the failure to exploit the many connections between academia and popular culture Finally Graff offers a wealth of practical suggestions for making the culture of ideas and arguments more accessible to students showing how students can enter the public debates that permeate their lives

BOOKJACKET Flâneuse Lauren Elkin,2017-02-28 FINALIST FOR THE PEN DIAMONSTEIN SPIELVOGEL AWARD FOR THE ART OF THE ESSAY A New York Times Notable Book of 2017 The fl neur is the quintessentially masculine figure of privilege and leisure who strides the capitals of the world with abandon But it is the fl neuse who captures the imagination of the cultural critic Lauren Elkin In her wonderfully gender bending new book the fl neuse is a determined resourceful individual keenly attuned to the creative potential of the city and the liberating possibilities of a good walk Virginia Woolf called it street haunting Holly Golightly epitomized it in Breakfast at Tiffany s and Patti Smith did it in her own inimitable style in 1970s New York Part cultural meander part memoir Fl neuse takes us on a distinctly cosmopolitan jaunt that begins in New York where Elkin grew up and transports us to Paris via Venice Tokyo and London all cities in which she s lived We are shown the paths beaten by such fl neuses as the cross dressing nineteenth century novelist George Sand the Parisian artist Sophie Calle the wartime correspondent Martha Gellhorn and the writer Jean Rhys With tenacity and insight Elkin creates a mosaic of what urban settings have meant to women charting through literature art history and film the sometimes exhilarating sometimes fraught relationship that women have with the metropolis Called deliciously spiky and seditious by The Guardian Fl neuse will inspire you to light out for the great cities yourself
